Investment strategy

The subfund invests at least 50% of its assets in securities from issuers that have their registered office in emerging market countries, or that conduct most of their business in such countries, provided that they are rated investment grade. The subfund invests up to 20% of its assets in convertible bonds. Up to 10% of its assets may be invested in instruments that are not traded on a regulated market. The subfund may use derivatives for efficient portfolio management and for hedging purposes.

Investment goal

The subfund is managed actively and invests worldwide, mainly in bonds issued by companies in emerging market countries. The investment objective of the subfund is capital growth of the investments. The subfund pursues a defensive strategy. Compared with an opportunistic strategy, a defensive strategy accepts less risk and so usually achieves a lower return.
