Barings International Umbrella Fund

Introduction

Barings International Umbrella Fund (the “Unit Trust”) is a unit trust managed by Baring International Fund Managers (Ireland) Limited (the “Manager”). The Unit Trust was established pursuant to the Unit Trusts Act, 1990, and a Trust Deed dated 11 February 1992 (as supplemented or amended from time to time) (the “Trust Deed”) made between the Manager and Northern Trust Fiduciary Services (Ireland) Limited (the “Depositary”) and authorised by the Central Bank of Ireland (the “CBI”), pursuant to the European Communities (Undertakings for Collective Investment in Transferable Securities) Regulations 2011 (as amended) (the “UCITS Regulations”). The Unit Trust is also listed on the Euronext Dublin Global Exchange Market.

The Unit Trust is organised in the form of an umbrella fund. A separate Fund is maintained for each series of units and is invested in accordance with the investment objective applicable to such Fund to date. Each Fund may create more than one class of units in relation to a Fund (a “class”) and these separate classes of units may be denominated in different currencies. A unit represents a beneficial interest in a Fund (a “unit”).

The Unit Trust has nine active Funds as at 30 April 2023 which have been approved by the CBI:

How the Funds are managed

The Manager of Barings ASEAN Frontiers Fund, Barings Asia Growth Fund, Barings Australia Fund and Barings Hong Kong China Fund has appointed Baring Asset Management Limited as the Investment Manager of the Funds. In turn, Baring Asset Management Limited has appointed Baring Asset Management (Asia) Limited and Barings LLC as Sub-Investment Managers to the Funds.

At Barings, our equity investment teams share the philosophy of quality Growth at a Reasonable Price ("GARP"). We believe that earnings growth is the principal driver of equity market performance over the medium to long term, and favour high quality companies for their ability to over perform the market on a risk-adjusted basis. In particular, we believe that structured fundamental research and a disciplined investment process combining quality growth and upside disciplines can allow us to identify attractively priced, long-term growth companies which will over perform the market. Our approach emphasises quality criteria when looking at companies and a three- to five-year time horizon when forecasting company earnings. In determining upside, we use consistent and transparent methods to place emphasis on discounted earnings models.

The Manager of Barings Europa Fund has appointed Baring Asset Management Limited as the Investment Manager of the Fund.

The Fund is invested in European equity markets (including the United Kingdom), using a "bottom-up" investment approach. This means that we focus more on the individual merits of a specific company, rather than taking a stance on a sector of the market or macroeconomic trends such as interest rate rises. Within this, Barings manages the Fund using a GARP approach. This means that when researching candidates for the portfolio, we place just as much emphasis on the likely growth in corporate earnings at a company as we do on the unit price valuation before deciding whether to invest or not. We believe this approach combines the best features of both "growth" and "value" investment styles, to the benefit of investors. We invest in companies which we believe offer potential for delivering better than expected earnings growth. We do this by carefully researching a company's corporate strategy and revenue sources. An important part of the investment process involves regular meetings with the management of companies in which we are considering investment. We then work to put a price on the units of the company in the light of our assessment of its earnings prospects and compare this to its peers in the sector and globally. When we are satisfied that a company meets our criteria for investing, we purchase an appropriate number of units.

The Manager of Barings Global Bond Fund has appointed Baring Asset Management Limited as the Investment Manager of the Fund. Barings LLC and Barings Japan Limited were appointed as Sub-Investment Managers of the Fund.

Baring Asset Management Limited seeks investment returns by investing in bond markets where we believe yields are likely to fall and avoiding those we think are expensive. The overall duration, or interest rate sensitivity, of the Fund will fluctuate as our expectations for economic developments change, relative to the market. We will also look to add value through foreign exchange management, identifying those markets where currencies are attractive, for example due to sound economic fundamentals or rising interest rates.

The Manager of Barings Europe Select Fund and Barings German Growth Fund, has also appointed Baring Asset Management Limited as the Investment Manager of the Funds.

At Barings, our equity investment teams share the philosophy of quality GARP. We believe that earnings growth is the principal driver of equity market performance over the medium to long term, and favour high-quality companies for their ability to over perform the market on a risk-adjusted basis. In particular, we believe that structured fundamental research and a disciplined investment process combining quality, growth and upside disciplines can allow us to identify attractively priced, longterm growth companies which will over perform the market. In determining upside, we use consistent and transparent methods to place emphasis on discounted earnings models.

The Manager of Barings Global Dividend Champions Fund has appointed Baring Asset Management Limited as the Investment Manager of the Fund.

Our investment process is predominantly “bottom-up”. To find the exceptional businesses that make up the strategy, we use a broad range of research inputs: Barings’ internal analytical resources, industry experts, company meetings, quantitative research and company reports, among others. We are natural sceptics – rather than buying into a “story”, we seek proof of a company’s excellence. Only our highest-conviction ideas make it into the strategy, so robust debate and close analysis of fundamentals are key.

We evaluate candidate companies using the following three-stage process:

- Quality: we scrutinise a company’s business model, looking for a range of features and competitive advantages, including network effects, benefits to incumbency, large installed bases, leading brands or a sustainable research and development (“R&D”) edge. Upon inspection, companies must earn attractive returns on capital, possess excellent financial profiles and have a management team committed to its role as the steward of shareholder wealth.
- Growth: we assess our candidate companies’ ability to deliver long-term profit growth. Sustained growth of both capital and dividends can only be achieved if the underlying business is flourishing. Our process leads us to firms with stable and visible growth profiles rather than companies with more speculative growth ambitions, or those businesses whose fortunes are heavily linked to unpredictable external forces. The ideal investment is a growing company with meaningful control of its own destiny.
- Valuation and scenario analysis: financial statements are “cleaned” of any accounting distortions (such as off balance-sheet liabilities) which may obscure the true financial position of a business, and companies are put through a series of business-specific stress tests. The aim is to ascertain the underlying risk that an investment presents, and to gauge the scale of profit and dividend progression we can reasonably expect under various circumstances. Many companies “fail” this stage of the process – businesses are often found to present too much risk once their underlying fundamentals are “tested”. If a company does pass this stage, we then ascertain the long-term value of the business using a highly consistent and cash-based set of valuation techniques.

Please refer to the Prospectus for the full risk profile of each of the Funds. Investors should read the Prospectus and carefully consider the potential risk factors as well as reward factors before investing.

In preparing these financial statements, the Manager must:

- select and consistently apply suitable accounting policies;

The Manager is responsible for keeping adequate accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the Trust and enable it to ensure that the financial statements comply with the UCITS Regulations. The Manager is also responsible for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Under the Central Bank of Ireland (the "CBI") UCITS Regulations, the assets of the Unit Trust shall be entrusted to Northern Trust Fiduciary Services (Ireland) Limited (the "Depositary") for safekeeping, and therefore custody of the Fund's assets rests with Northern Trust Fiduciary Services (Ireland) Limited.

The financial statements are published at www.barings.com. The Directors together with the Manager and Investment Manager are responsible for the maintenance and integrity of the website as far as it relates to Barings funds. Transactions must be in the best interests of the unitholders.

The Directors of the Manager are satisfied that there are arrangements (evidenced by written procedures) in place to ensure that the obligations set out in Regulation 43(1) of the Central Bank UCITS Regulations are applied to all transactions with connected persons, and are satisfied that transactions with connected persons entered into during the year complied with the obligations set out in Regulation 43(1) of the Central Bank UCITS Regulations.

Remuneration code

The UCITS V provisions require Management Companies to establish and apply remuneration policies and practices that promote sound and effective risk management, and do not encourage risk taking which is inconsistent with the risk profile of the UCITS.

The Manager has a Remuneration Policy in place, details of which are available on the Barings website at www.barings.com/guest/content/remuneration-policies.

The purpose of the Manager's remuneration policy is to seek to ensure that the remuneration arrangements of "Identified Staff":

- (i) are consistent with and promote sound and effective risk management and do not encourage risk-taking which is inconsistent with the risk profile, rules or instruments of incorporation of the Manager or any fund which the Manager is the manager of; and
- (ii) are consistent with the Manager's business strategy, objectives, values and interests and include measures to avoid conflicts of interest.

Please see Appendix 5 for the remuneration disclosure.

Investment Managers' Report

For the financial year ended 30 April 2023

Barings ASEAN Frontiers Fund

Performance

Barings ASEAN Frontiers Fund (the "Fund") generated a gross return of -2.28% on the Class A USD Inc unit class and underperformed against the performance comparator with a return of 0.04%* during the reporting year. The Fund generated a net return of -3.94% on the Class A USD Inc unit class.

ASEAN equities were broadly flat US dollar terms over the past 12 months. Market performance was underpinned by the region's ongoing domestic economic recovery, coupled with China's reopening wave alongside a slowdown of policy tightening by local central banks amid stabilising inflation and expectation of US interest rate hike cycle peaking out sometime this year. These positive factors have helped support investor sentiment against a volatile macro backdrop externally.

Stock selection was a key detractor to relative performance of the Fund over the review period, particularly in Information Technology led by selective Thai and Singaporean companies, while stock selection in Financials also weighed on the Fund's relative performance. On the bright side, the Fund had a higher exposure in Information Technology relative to the performance comparator, which ended as a notable contributor to relative performance. Stock selection in Utilities also added value to the Fund over the past 12 months.

At a company level, Thailand-based debt collection services provider JMT Network Services was a key detractor to relative performance of the Fund over the review period, as share price came under pressure on the back of concerns about slower asset growth and cash collection. On the other hand, Indonesia's leading lifestyle retailer PT Mitra Adiperkasa contributed notably to the Fund. The company is poised to benefit from continuing domestic consumption recovery in the short run, alongside structural population growth of Indonesia's middle class and increasing budget allocated to lifestyle spending over the medium to longer run.

Market outlook

We remain constructive on ASEAN equities, as we see the potential for some of the headwinds in 2022 turning into tailwinds while ASEAN's long-term secular drivers remaining intact. As the US Federal Reserve approaches a pause in its most aggressive rate hike cycle, the expectation of a weakening US dollar against ASEAN currencies will allow ASEAN central banks to also pause/ease monetary tightening according to local conditions. Meanwhile, China's reopening is starting to reinvigorate tourism-dependent economies like Thailand in the coming quarters as flight capacity ramps up. The current external macro backdrop with US rates reaching its peak, and concerns rising over a potential US recession puts large domestic demand economies like Indonesia and Philippines as attractive defensive markets with structural growth tailwinds. While more externally exposed economies like Vietnam, Singapore and Malaysia are vulnerable to any US recession, China's unlocking should mitigate some of that weakness. The longer-term investment thesis for the region such as supply chain diversification beneficiaries also remain very much intact.

Valuation of ASEAN equities has fallen below its long-term average due to tighter global liquidity and rising cost of capital. With a softer outlook on interest rate policies and expected strengthening of local currencies, there is a case for valuations to recover in ASEAN equities. Macro factors, particularly interest rates expectations, were the major drivers of performance including stylistic rotations since 2022 should take a backseat to earnings growth in the coming quarters as rates peak out.

Our ASEAN equity strategy remains positioned in companies exposed to the secular growth themes such as technological ubiquity (the digitalisation and connectivity of everything), evolving lifestyle and societal values (sustainability, rising middle class, healthy living) and de-globalisation (supply chain diversification and reshoring). The stylistic rotations have detracted from our short-term performance, but we believe our Growth-at-a-Reasonable-Price (GARP) investment approach combined with our proprietary portfolio construction tools will position the portfolio favourably beyond the near-term gyrations.

* The Fund return uses the midday prices, whereas the return of the comparator is calculated using global close prices.

May 2023

Baring Asset Management Limited (the "Investment Manager") gives its portfolio managers full authority to manage their Funds as they see fit, within the established guidelines set down. BARINGS

For the financial year ended 30 April 2023

Barings Asia Growth Fund

Performance

Barings Asia Growth Fund (the "Fund") generated a gross return of -11.64% on the Class A USD Inc unit class and underperformed against the performance comparator with a return of -5.94%* during the reporting year. The Fund generated a net return of -13.14% on the A USD INC unit class.

Asian equities extended the weakness and trended lower in the first half of the review period, as external macro headwinds alongside elevated geopolitical uncertainties continued to weigh on market performance of the region. However, this was followed by a resilient rebound in the latter half of the review period thanks to China's reopening wave post relaxations of COVID-19 restrictions, which not only underpinned improving economic recovery outlook in China but also benefitted its neighbouring markets within the region amid tourism and trade revivals.

Stock selection was a key detractor to relative performance of the Fund over the review period, particularly within Consumer Discretionary led by selective Chinese and Indian companies, as well as Information Technology amid the sector's ongoing downcycle. On the bright side, stock selection in Industrials contributed notably to the Fund, primarily from some of the holdings in China and Singapore.

At a company level, Chinese e-commerce platform JD.com ended as a key drag to the Fund's relative performance over the past 12 months, partly due to revenue pressure from soft consumption amid COVID-19 drags, coupled with concerns about the company's subsidy campaign for merchants that could hurt its profit margin. On the other hand, Singapore-listed Yangzijiang Shipbuilding ended as a notable contributor to the Fund, partly driven by the announcement that the company has successfully secured its first-ever large-sized LNG (liquefied natural gas) carrier orders, which showcased customer endorsement of its capabilities.

Market outlook

Despite the mixed earnings backdrop for Asian companies this year, we are constructive on the outlook for the region, as some of the 2022 macro headwinds are turning to tailwinds in 2023. As the US Federal Reserve approaches a pause in its most aggressive rate hike cycle, the expectation of a weakening US dollar against Asian currencies would allow Asian central banks to also pause or ease monetary tightening according to local conditions. Meanwhile, China's decisive pivot to growth will continue to unfold over the course of the year with the property sector showing signs of recovery. The positive impact on company fundamentals should be more pronounced in the second quarter of 2023 on top of the depressed earnings starting in the same quarter last year from Shanghai's COVID-19 outbreak. As for Korean and Taiwanese equities, investors have started to position for the anticipated trough in tech demand around mid-year, and corporate earnings could strongly rebound in 2024 as demand recovery is met with curtailed supply growth.

Distinctive factors are likely key to support corporate earnings among ASEAN companies. Thai companies would likely benefit from recovery of inbound Chinese tourists as well as a boost to consumption from election spending and populist policies. The Philippines should continue to benefit from COVID-19 reopening tailwinds and pause in its aggressive rate hike cycle. In Indonesia, domestic consumption, its improving credit cycle, and structural catalysts such as FDI (foreign direct investment) and EV (electric vehicle) transition would help to boost profits. As for India, valuation premium for equities has reduced from an all-time high to more a normalised level. Earnings momentum is still weak in the near-term for consumer and IT sectors but upon further corrections, there could opportunities provided for stock pickers.

Our strategy remains positioned in stocks exposed to the secular growth themes such as technological ubiquity (digitalisation and connectivity of everything), evolving lifestyle and societal values (sustainability, millennial/Gen Z consumption trends, healthy living) and de-globalisation (supply chain diversification and reshoring). While the stylistic rotations have caused some volatility in recent performance, our Growth-at-a-Reasonable-Price (GARP) investment approach has positioned our portfolios favourably beyond the near-term gyrations.

Barings Australia Fund

Performance

Barings Australia Fund (the "Fund") generated a gross return of -5.94% on the Class A USD Inc unit class and underperformed the performance comparator, which returned -3.34%* during the reporting year. The Fund generated a net return of -7.54% on the Class A USD Inc unit class.

Concerns over an economic slowdown linked to high inflation and rising interest rates weighed on the market during the period. The Financials and Real Estate sectors saw notable weakness in response. However, Energy was once again one of the top performing sectors, alongside Industrials.

At stock level, Brambles was the top positive contributor to relative performance. Brambles has a global leading position in providing re-usable pallets for transporting goods. The fund held a sizeable position in the company with our high conviction reflecting the defensiveness of demand (closely linked to consumer staples); the measures taken by management to improve return on invested capital and strengthen contract terms; and strong free cash flow potential that the market appeared to be under-estimating. The company delivered earnings upgrades during the period, and we believe the outlook remains positive.

Aristocrat Leisure was the second largest contributor. It has a growing, market leadership position in gaming in Australia and North America, underpinned by Research & Development, with a high margin and strong track record of compounding earnings growth. Aristocrat also owns some strong mobile game franchises which occupy the #1 position in certain niches. Shares performed well over the period with good earnings delivery and a positive re-rating as the growth opportunity in both the existing and new adjacent verticals became more widely recognised.

The largest detractor to relative performance was Goodman Group, a commercial real estate business that specialises in logistic and data centers. The management team was early to recognise changing trends in the industry and over the last decade has pivoted away from retail, office and manufacturing real estate and towards areas seeing longer-term structural demand growth, notably prime urban logistic warehousing (to support e-commerce) and cloud data centers. This foresight has led to strong subsequent shareholder returns and it's been a long-term holding in the fund. Earnings growth continued over the last year, but valuation suffered from a de-rating in response to rising interest rates, along with the broader real estate sector. Higher costs of capital present a headwind. However, Goodman's strong balance sheet and exposure to verticals that continue to experience growing demand (with very high utilisation and significant rent inflation) should help it navigate the higher rate environment. Meanwhile the long-term opportunity remains very attractive.

Cleanaway Waste Management was also a detractor. It operates leading waste processing and recycling assets across Australia and plays a key role in the country's transition to a more circular economy. Margins saw near-term pressure, primarily from high inflation in fuel and labour costs that were not fully passed on to customers due to a contractual timing lag. We view the recent headwinds as transitory and anticipate a return to compounding earnings growth with low demand cyclicality.

We incorporate environmental, social and governance ("ESG") into our investment process. The Fund's latest Morningstar Sustainability rates the Fund as "Above Average" relative to the Australian and New Zealand peer group, whilst MSCI ESG rank the fund "AA" as an "ESG Leader." In addition to external ratings, we conduct our own proprietary carbon footprint analysis of the portfolio relative to the benchmark. As of the end of April 2023, the Fund had a carbon footprint that was 34% less than the benchmark.

Market outlook

The Reserve Bank of Australia faces a challenge of bringing down inflation by raising interest rates without tipping the economy into a recession. This is not unique to Australia and an issue other central banks also face. However, Australia does benefit from some country specific factors that help make it a relative "safe-haven" in our view, and the IMF forecast GDP growth to exceed the average of the G7 Advanced Economies over the next five years.

Notably, Australian government net debt/GDP is well below other developed economies across Europe and the US. The Treasury also forecasts a budget surplus this year, also in sharp contrast to some other developed economies. We believe this provides leeway for fiscal stimulus as a backstop if a recession does occur which should support domestic earnings.

Australia's proximity to China, a major export partner, should also provide a tailwind to demand as China emerges from its recent lockdowns. We also see some early signs that Australia reopening its border to immigration could help alleviate the labour market tightness experienced over the last year. Meanwhile its rich natural resources (with relatively low political risk attached), and status as a net exporter of energy further add to its attractiveness with respect to global supply chain security.

We have high conviction in the companies held in the Fund and it remains a concentrated portfolio, built from bottom-up stock selection. As at the period end, the fund had 32 positions. These include some very attractively valued smaller cap Australian companies which are not included in the performance comparator by virtue of their size.

One of these small-cap companies is Steadfast Group, a high-quality insurance broker with defensive earnings growth and share price that does not, in our view, fully reflect the long-term value creation opportunity that the international monetisation of their client trading technology platform could generate. Another small-cap holding is Johns Lyng Group, a building services business that specialises in doing property repairs after insurable events (e.g. fires/floods). We like the non-discretionary and non-cyclical nature of demand for its services, attractive contract terms that pass on cost inflation to the insurers thereby protecting gross margin, and their unique and capital-light business model that is disrupting the market and delivering very rapid earnings growth - with a long runway to continue.

Barings Europa Fund

Performance

The Barings Europa Fund (the "Fund") generated a gross return of 8.80% on the Class A USD Inc unit class and underperformed against the performance comparator, which returned 12.03%* during the reporting year. The Fund generated a net return of 6.94% on the Class A USD Inc unit class.

European equities performed strongly over the period as the risk of a severe recession in Europe receded as energy prices declined and economic data was generally less bad than feared. Nevertheless, despite the overall positive market returns, levels of uncertainty remained high, resulting in market volatility as data also showed high inflation, in part as previously higher energy prices worked their way through supply chains, which central banks responded to with a series of interest rate hikes.

Some of the portfolio's strongest performers were in the Financials sector, including AXA and Julius Baer. Both have reported well received results over the period, with insurance group AXA benefiting from strong execution as it continues to de-risk its business model, which in turn has led to returns to shareholders of excess capital, whilst Julius Baer's results have been supported by rising interest rates.

Stock selection in the Energy sector also contributed positively to relative returns. TotalEnergies over performed the benchmark, despite oil and natural gas prices falling back from the highs reached in the immediate aftermath of Russia's invasion of Ukraine, as the group made continued progress through its energy transition programme via significant investments into renewable energy.

The portfolio's underweight allocation to the Consumer Discretionary sector negatively impacted relative performance. We have remained underweight due to not finding sufficient investment opportunities in stocks with Growth at a Reasonable Price investment characteristics and because of some broader concerns over consumer spending trends in light of cost-of-living pressures. However, we did invest in several good quality consumer-facing stocks towards the end of the period when we felt that valuations were more than discounting the potential adverse scenarios.

In terms of companies held in the portfolio, Belgian telecoms group Telenet was a key underperformer, as good operational results were at times offset by question marks over management's longer term growth strategy, including with regard to its fibre network investment plan and position of its controlling shareholder. Despite the strategic issues, we felt that Liberty at some point would seek to buy-out minority shareholders, which proved to be the case. The Fund thus sold out from this position post a circa +40% rise in the share price when the offer was made in late March.

Market outlook

2022 as a whole was a tumultuous year for many asset classes, including European equities, with the cross-currents of inflation, rising interest rates, slowing growth, geopolitical tensions (punctuated by the Russia-Ukraine conflict), and the lingering effects of COVID-19 all roiling markets. Whilst some of these developments may be near to having run their course, others, such as the Russia/Ukraine conflict, look set to continue.

Despite this challenging backdrop, equity markets begun 2023 well, largely on speculation that, while inflation rates remain high relative to history, the peak rate may have passed and we may therefore be nearing the end of the interest rate tightening cycle. This view is supported by the sharp retrenchment of energy prices and an easing of supply chain pressures as the effects from COVID-19 lockdowns recede. In turn, China's sudden reversal of its zero tolerance COVID policy last autumn and subsequent efforts to bolster the economy bode well for not only the world's second largest economy, but the global economy as well.

Barings Hong Kong China Fund

Performance

Barings Hong Kong China Fund (the "Fund") generated a gross return of -12.29% on the Class A USD Inc unit class and underperformed against the performance comparator with a return of -5.31%* during the reporting year. The Fund generated a net return of -13.78% on the Class A USD Inc unit class.

Chinese equities came under pressure particularly in the first half of the review period, largely dragged by sporadic COVID-19 outbreaks and lockdowns, weak property market condition, as well as elevated geopolitical tensions and challenging external macro headwinds amid the global monetary tightening cycle. Market later staged a strong rebound, driven by a series of COVID-19 policy relaxations and strong economic recoveries post reopening.

Stock selection was the major detractor to relative performance of the Fund over the review period, particularly in Information Technology and Industrials in light of tech industry down-cycle and cyclical growth pressure due to COVID-19 drags respectively. On the flipside, stock selection in Energy and Consumer Staples contributed notably to the Fund over the 12-month period.

At a company level, the Fund's relatively negative exposure versus the performance comparator in e-commerce platform PDD ended as a notable detractor to relative performance over the review period, as share price was underpinned by better-than-expected earnings results as well as improving sales outlook post COVID-19 reopening. On the other hand, energy conglomerate PetroChina was a key contributor to the Fund, thanks to improving demand outlook post reopening as well as the new round of SOE (state-owned enterprise) reforms that could result in further re-rating of the company.

Market outlook

After China reopened its economy from COVID-19, consumer sentiment and income expectations have continued to recover, albeit uneven developments among consumer sub-sectors have also been observed. Looking forward, we expect fundamentals of Chinese companies to sequentially improve in the coming quarters on the back of recovering consumption and supportive policies, helped by a lower base due to the depressed earnings starting in the second quarter last year from Shanghai's COVID-19 outbreak. Corporate profit margins could also benefit from the moderate inflation levels and deflating input costs. Meanwhile, the Chinese government stressed the importance of economic stability in 2023, as well as policies to stimulate domestic demand and investment, reform and innovation, and risk prevention. The policymakers are also committed to shifting focus towards high-quality development and improve science and technology to achieve self-sufficiency, which should support healthcare and information technology sectors where research and development are key to building competitiveness.

Externally, while demand from developed markets remains weak, market outlook on hawkish interest rates have begun to ease as global inflation continues to moderate, as well as to prevent liquidity risk in the banking sector. While the market could still experience some volatilities in the short run, both investors and companies are shifting their focus towards fundamentals. Valuations remain at attractive levels given the strong outlook this year. China's delay in reopening its borders in 2022 could mean deferring its growth to 2023, representing favourable opportunity for market entry.

We remain constructive on Chinese equities driven by bottom-up fundamentals. Overall speaking, we are more positive on the domestic economy than overseas/export demand in the coming quarters, largely due to the weaker/recessionary outlook in the US and Europe. As the economy gradually normalises, structural trends such as sustainable growth, self-sufficiency in the supply chain, scientific and technological innovations, and environmental awareness, would continue to unfold. This should bolster the outlook on sectors and themes such as new infrastructure, domestic consumption, health care, technology localisation and sustainability in the medium to longer term.

Performance

The Barings Global Bond Fund (the "Fund") generated a gross return of -3.93% on the Class A USD Inc unit class and underperformed its performance comparator with a return of -3.51%* during the reporting year. The Fund generated a net return of -5.09% on the Class A USD Inc unit class.

This should be viewed in context of a challenging year for bond markets, where yields have been quite volatile on growth and inflation uncertainties, aggressive central bank's hiking cycles and macro-economic risks emanating from geopolitics (Russia-Ukraine war, US-China trade tensions, etc.) and US bank failures. The latter now seems to have been resolved.

The Investment Manager took profits on long duration positions during the reporting year. They are looking for favourable entry levels to re-position for bond market over performance. Core investment views have not changed.

The Fund is overweight Europe (core and periphery), Australia (including via regional governments), New Zealand, and Canada (including provincials). It has a small underweight in the US, predominantly to express the Investment Managers' bearish USD view. On currencies, the fund is modestly long major currencies such as the Euro and Sterling.

Market outlook

The global macro-economic outlook is mixed and highly uncertain. Our base case is still for a significant slowdown in global economic growth. Hence, the Investment Manager remains positive on bonds in developed markets, considering the following:

- a) Major central banks have delivered one of the biggest and fastest monetary tightenings in history, especially in the inflation targeting era. That is yet to transmit into lower private consumption. Investors are debating whether the speed of monetary policy transmission mechanism into the real economy has changed since the drag to consumption is yet to be felt;
- b) Inflation has peaked, but core inflation is falling slower than central banks are comfortable with. As such, it is no surprise that most major central banks have maintained a tightening stance;
- c) The energy shock induced by the Russia-Ukraine war has abated. Oil and Natural Gas prices have fallen, terms of trade have improved for importers, and consumers are seeing the reprieve. Consequently, growth expectations have been revised higher across all major economies, but remain below trend;
- d) China, Europe and the US economies are slowing down, but to various degrees. Markets continue to debate the likelihood (or not) of a recession. As we know, recessions are incredibly hard to forecast. Our conviction is that the global economy is going through a significant slowdown.
- e) Most growth-related assets continue to signal global economic growth slowdown fears, but not recession.

Barings Europe Select Fund

Performance

The Barings Europe Select Fund (the "Fund") merged from Barings Investment Funds Plc into the Unit Trust on 14 October 2022. The Fund's previous track record with the inception date as at 8 February 2019 has been continued.

The Fund generated a gross return of -1.77% on the Class J EUR Inc unit class and over performed the performance comparator, which returned -4.72%* during the reporting year. The Fund generated a net return of -2.56% on the J EUR Inc unit class.

The Fund's top contributor to relative performance over the period was the European commercial laundry service company Elis, which over performed as a rebound in demand from the hospitality sector has driven strong earnings recovery, while recent M&A in Latin America has also proved successful.

Other significant positive contributors to relative returns included French advertising agency Publicis Groupe as recent earnings reports have been strong, with margins rising and organic growth benefiting from customer wins and growth in new services.

The Fund also benefitted from very minimal exposure to the Real Estate sector, which markedly underperformed reflecting the sector's sensitivity to rising interest rates.

These strong performances were partially offset by positioning in the Financial sector. This was not caused by any major stock specific weakness but was attributable to recent smaller relative underperformance spanning a number of individual holdings.

Beyond the Financials sector the largest detractor to performance was Italian utility company Hera, reflecting uncertainty regarding potential changing regulatory policies concerning allowable returns on regulated assets which could pressure short term earnings forecasts.

Market outlook

Equity markets are likely to remain volatile over the coming months as the path for inflation and interest rates remains uncertain. Whilst the risk of recessions across developed economies remains elevated, presenting challenges for corporate profit growth in 2023.

Despite this challenging backdrop, equity markets began the year with further share price rises, largely on speculation that, while inflation rates remain high, the peak rate of price growth may have passed and therefore, central banks may raise interest rates less dramatically this year than had previously been feared. This view is supported by the sharp retrenchment of energy prices and improvements to business activity surveys. Secondly, China's dramatic reversal of its zero tolerance COVID policy and efforts to support the economy has encouraged forecasters to revise up assessments of Chinese GDP growth in 2023, which in turn will have a positive impact on the global economy.

In this context, our Growth at a Reasonable Price approach remains unchanged, focusing on reasonably valued companies whose profit growth potential is demonstrably improving. Following the recent over performance of Value style equities, and underperformance by Growth companies, valuation dispersion has declined across sectors. Earnings revisions, and individual companies' commentaries on their specific growth prospects, should increasingly determine share price performance.

Barings German Growth Fund

Performance

The Barings German Growth Fund (the "Fund") merged from Barings Investment Funds Plc into the Unit Trust on 14 October 2022. The Fund's previous track record with the inception date as at 8 February 2019 has been continued.

The Fund generated a gross return of 8.72% on the Class J EUR Acc unit class and underperformed its performance comparator, which returned 10.44%* during the reporting year. The Fund generated a net return of 7.82% on the Class J EUR Acc unit class.

Over the course of the twelve-month time period, value style equities over performed Growth peers (as measured by the MSCI Germany Growth and Value indices). As well as this companies experiencing positive earnings revisions - which we seek to own in the portfolio - have also been amongst the weakest performers over recent months, despite their earnings prospects improving. These are two significant factors behind the Fund underperforming the benchmark in the period.

Stock selection in the Information Technology sector had the largest negative impact on relative performance over the period. The holding in Information Technology services company Allgeier was one of the weakest performers despite any negative company-specific news. We continue to believe this is a high-quality business that offers strong growth potential over the medium term and are happy to hold the position.

In contrast, stock selection in the Financial sector contributed positively to relative returns. Commerzbank was one of the best performers, reflecting strong quarterly earnings, with the company benefitting from the rising interest rate environment. The Fund's position in Insurance company Hannover Re likewise benefitted fund performance.

With regards sector allocation, a lack of exposure to the Real Estate sector also improved relative returns, after the sector significantly underperformed in response to concerns regarding rising interest rates and the increased cost of mortgage debt.

Market outlook

Equity markets are likely to remain volatile over the coming months as the path for inflation and interest rates remains uncertain. The risk of recessions across developed economies remains elevated, presenting challenges for corporate profit growth in 2023.

Despite this challenging backdrop, equity markets begun the year with further share price rises, supported by the sharp retrenchment of energy prices and the reopening of the Chinese economy as zero-COVID policies are relaxed.

Economic data releases have been mixed but less weak than might have been expected by most strategists nine months ago. Surveys of business confidence have improved from low levels and inflation rates, while well above central banks' target levels, have stabilised, reflecting slower than anticipated wage growth and the significant retrenchments in energy prices.

Monetary policy may need to tighten further to combat high inflation rates, but central banks' rhetoric is starting to presage potential peaking in rates later this year. In this context, global economic growth forecasts have generally been marginally upgraded.

The economic backdrop is, therefore, better than had been assumed a year ago, although companies in developed markets are still forecast to see limited earnings per share growth in 2023.

We are mindful that equity markets and the global economy continue to face significant headwinds despite recent share price gains, and it is possible that the market will sell-off again in the future. In this context, the portfolio remains defensively positioned in businesses that are less economically sensitive and where cash flows are likely to be more resilient in a downturn.

Performance

The Barings Global Dividend Champions Fund (the "Fund") merged from Barings Investment Funds Plc into the Unit Trust on 7 October 2022. The Fund's previous track record with the inception date as at 20 October 2016 has been continued.

The Fund generated a gross return of 7.17% on the Class A USD Acc unit class and over performed the performance comparator, which returned 3.18%* during the reporting year. The Fund generated a net return of 5.44% on the Class A USD Acc unit class.

Stock selection in the Consumer Staples and Consumer Discretionary sectors was the main driver behind the Fund over performing the benchmark over the period. The Fund has a significant overweight to staples companies, many of which have proven to be resilient amidst the tougher economic environment. Therein, Unilever was the best performing holding over the period, with the company's revenues holding up well despite economic uncertainties as management raised prices to compensate for higher costs. The ability of Unilever to pass on these price rises to its customers demonstrates the fundamental pricing power and strength of its market leading brands.

Away from these sectors there were also positive contributions from some of the Healthcare holdings. Danish pharmaceutical company Novo Nordisk was one of the strongest performers, reflecting the growing demand for its high-quality specialist diabetes treatment and weight loss drugs.

In contrast, stock selection in the Industrials sector contributed negatively to relative returns, with the Fund's largest detractor over the period being Stanley Black & Decker. This was mainly due to disappointing results which highlighted slowing end-market demand for the company's tools and equipment, as well as rising cost pressures. This holding was sold over the period.

BARINGS

Barings International Umbrella Fund

Notes to the financial statements

For the financial year ended 30 April 2023

1. Basis of measurement

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Irish Generally Accepted Accounting Practice, including Financial Reporting Standard 102, “The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland” (“FRS 102”) as issued by the UK Financial Reporting Council (“FRC”), and Irish law and certain provisions of the European Communities (Undertakings for Collective Investment in Transferable Securities) Regulations 2011 (the “UCITS Regulations”). Accounting standards generally accepted in Ireland in preparing financial statements giving a true and fair view are those issued by the Financial Reporting Council (“FRC”).

Barings International Umbrella Fund (the “Unit Trust”) has been authorised by the Central Bank of Ireland (the “CBI”) pursuant to the Unit Trusts Act, 1990, and the Trust Deed. As the Barings ASEAN Frontiers Fund, Barings Asia Growth Fund, Barings Australia Fund, Barings Europa Fund, Barings Hong Kong China Fund and Barings Global Bond Fund (the “Funds”) are registered for sale in Hong Kong, the Unit Trust has also been authorised by the Hong Kong Securities and Futures Commission (“SFC”) pursuant to the provisions of the Hong Kong Code on Unit Trusts and Mutual Funds, supplemented or consolidated from time to time.

The Unit Trust meets all the conditions set out in FRS 102, section 7 and consequently has availed of the exemption available to certain funds not to prepare a statement of cash flows.

The preparation of financial statements requires management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the application of policies and the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, income and expenses. The estimates and associated assumptions are based on historical experience and various other factors that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances, the results of which form the basis of the judgements made about carrying values of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention as modified by the revaluation of financial assets and financial liabilities, including derivative financial instruments held at fair value through profit or loss. The financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis.

2. Significant accounting policies

(a) Fair value measurement

By fully adopting FRS 102, in accounting for its financial instruments, a reporting entity is required to apply either (a) the full requirements of FRS 102 relating to Basic Financial Instruments and Other Financial Instruments, b) the recognition and measurement provisions of IAS 39 Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement and only the disclosure requirements of FRS 102 relating to Basic Financial Instruments and Other Financial Instruments, or c) the recognition and measurement provisions of IFRS 9 Financial Instruments and only the disclosure requirements of FRS 102 relating to Basic Financial Instruments and Other Financial Instruments. The Unit Trust has chosen to implement (b) the recognition and measurement provisions of IAS 39 Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement and only the disclosure requirements of FRS 102 relating to Basic Financial Instruments and Other Financial Instruments.

The use of the IAS 39 recognition and measurement provisions is in line with the pricing policy, which outlines that the fair value of financial assets and financial liabilities be valued at the last traded prices. The financial statements include all the trades received up until 12:00p.m. (Irish time) on 28 April 2023, the valuation point for the Unit Trust.

An adjustment has been made to the value of investments in Barings Europa Fund, Barings Global Bond Fund, Barings Europe Select Fund, Barings German Growth Fund and Barings Global Dividend Champions Fund to reflect the close of business prices on 28 April 2023.

(b) Foreign exchange transaction

Functional and presentation currency

Items included in the Unit Trust's financial statements are measured using the currency of the primary economic environment in which it operates (the "functional currency"). The functional currency of Barings ASEAN Frontiers Fund, Barings Asia Growth Fund, Barings Australia Fund, Barings Europa Fund, Barings Hong Kong China Fund, Barings Global Bond Fund and Barings Global Dividend Champions Fund is the US dollar, as the majority of share classes are subscribed in US dollars. The functional currency of Barings Europe Select Fund and Barings German Growth Fund is the euro based on the same rationale.

Transactions and balances

Foreign currency transactions are translated into the functional and presentation currency using the exchange rates prevailing at the dates of the transactions. Foreign exchange gains and losses resulting from the settlement of such transactions and from the translation at year-end exchange rates of monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are recognised in the Statement of Comprehensive Income.

Proceeds from subscriptions and amounts paid on redemption of redeemable participating units are translated into the functional currency using the exchange rates prevailing at the dates of the transactions.

They represent the difference between an instrument's initial carrying amount and disposal amount, or cash payments or receipts made on derivative contracts (excluding payments or receipts on collateral margin accounts for such instruments).

(c) Financial assets and financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss

Classification

The Funds classify their investments in securities as financial assets or financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss. These financial assets and financial liabilities are classified as held for trading or designated by the Directors of the Manager at fair value through profit or loss at inception.

Financial assets or financial liabilities held for trading are those acquired or incurred principally for the purposes of selling or repurchasing in the short term. Financial assets and financial liabilities designated at fair value through profit or loss at inception are those that are managed and whose performance is evaluated on a fair value basis in accordance with the Funds' documented investment strategies. The Funds' policy is for Baring Asset Management Limited (the "Investment Manager") and the Directors of the Manager to evaluate the information about these financial assets on a fair value basis together with other related financial information. These financial assets and financial liabilities are expected to be realised within 12 months of the Statement of Financial Position date.

Recognition/derecognition

Purchases and sales of investments are recognised on the trade date – the date on which the Funds commit to purchasing or selling the investment. The financial statements include all the trades received up until the valuation point for each Fund as disclosed on page 3. Any trades received subsequent to these points are not reflected in the financial statements. Investments are de-recognised when the rights to receive cash flows from the investments have expired or the Funds have transferred substantially all risks and rewards of ownership. Realised gains and losses on disposals of financial assets and financial liabilities classified as 'at fair value through profit or loss' are calculated using the First In First Out ("FIFO") method. They represent the difference between an instrument's initial carrying amount and disposal amount, or cash payments or receipts made on derivative contracts (excluding payments or receipts on collateral margin accounts for such instruments).

Measurement

Financial assets and financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss are initially recognised at fair value. Transaction costs are included in the 'net fair value gain/(loss) on financial assets at fair value through profit or loss' in the Statement of Comprehensive Income for each individual Fund. Subsequent to initial recognition, all financial assets and financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss are measured at fair value at the relevant valuation point for each Fund as disclosed on page 3. Gains and losses arising from changes in the fair value of the 'Financial assets or financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss' category are presented in the Statement of Comprehensive Income in the year in which they arise.

Fair value estimation

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. As a result of the Unit Trust's decision to implement the recognition and measurement provisions of IAS 39 Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement, the fair value of financial assets and liabilities traded in active markets (such as publicly traded derivatives and trading securities) are based on quoted market prices at the Fund's valuation point on the reporting date.

The Unit Trust's fair valuation input utilises the last traded market price for both financial assets and financial liabilities where the last traded price falls within the bid-ask spread. In circumstances where the last traded price is not within the bid-ask spread, management will determine the point within the bid-ask spread that is most representative of fair value.

2. Significant accounting policies (continued)

The fair value of financial instruments that are not traded in an active market (for example, over-the-counter derivatives) is determined by using valuation techniques. The Funds use a variety of methods and make assumptions that are based on market conditions existing at the Statement of Financial Position date. Unquoted investments are valued in accordance with the most recent valuation made by the Manager. In the absence of a price being available for a security, the Directors of the Manager can determine such a valuation where appropriate. Valuation techniques used include the use of comparable recent arm's length transactions, discounted cash flow analysis, option pricing models and other valuation techniques commonly used by market participants.

Investment Funds are stated at fair value, which is represented by the unaudited NAV of the underlying investment as reported by the management of these investment funds. The Unit Trust estimates that this valuation method most fairly represents the amount that would have been realised had the investment been sold as at the date of these financial statements.

Forward foreign currency transactions

Forward foreign currency transactions "FFCT's" are measured at fair value based on the closing prices of the FFCTs contract rates on the relevant foreign exchange market on a daily basis. Realised and unrealised gains and/or losses are reported in the Statement of Comprehensive Income.

Futures contracts

A futures contract is an agreement between two parties to buy and sell a security, index or currency at a specific price or rate at a future date. Upon entering into a futures contract, the Funds are required to deposit with a broker an amount of cash or cash equivalents equal to a certain percentage of the contract amount. This is known as the "initial cash margin". Subsequent payments ("variation margins") are made or received by the Funds each day, depending on the daily fluctuation in the value of the contract.

The daily changes in contract value are recorded as unrealised gains or losses, and the Funds recognise a realised gain or loss when the contract is closed. Unrealised gains and losses on futures contracts are recognised in the Statement of Comprehensive Income.

(d) Income

Interest income and interest expenses

Interest income and interest expenses are recognised in the Statement of Comprehensive Income for all debt instruments and cash using the effective interest method. The effective interest method is a method of calculating the amortised cost of a financial asset or financial liability and of allocating the interest income or interest expense over the relevant year. The effective interest rate is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash payments or receipts throughout the expected life of the financial instrument, or a shorter year where appropriate, to the net carrying amount of the financial asset or financial liability.

Once a financial asset or a group of similar financial assets has been written down as a result of an impairment loss, interest income is recognised using the rate of interest used to discount the future cash flows for the purpose of measuring the impairment loss.

Dividend Income

Dividends are credited to the Statement of Comprehensive Income on the dates on which the relevant securities are listed as "ex-dividend". Dividend income is shown gross of any irrecoverable withholding taxes, which are disclosed separately in the Statement of Comprehensive Income, and net of any tax credits.

2. Significant accounting policies (continued)

(e) Expenses

All expenses, including management fees, administration fees and depositary fees, are recognised in the Statement of Comprehensive Income on an accruals basis. The Manager meets all other expenses incurred by the Unit Trust in connection with its services.

(f) Receivables

Receivables are non-derivative financial assets with fixed or determinable payments that are not quoted in an active market. Receivables are initially recognised at fair value plus transaction costs that are directly attributable to their acquisition origination. They are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method, less provision for impairment.

(g) Payables

Payables are initially recognised at fair value and subsequently stated at amortised cost using the effective interest method. The difference between the proceeds and the amounts payable is recognised over the year of the payable using the effective interest method.

(h) Redeemable participating units

Redeemable participating units are redeemable at the unitholder's option and are classified as financial liabilities. The accounting policy for recognition of subscriptions and redemptions is that they were recorded effective from the trade date for financing reporting purposes.

The redeemable participating unit can be put back into the Unit Trust on any business day of the Fund for cash equal to a proportionate unit of the Fund's Net Asset Value. The redeemable participating unit is carried at the redemption amount that is payable at the Statement of Financial Position date if the unitholder exercised their right to put the unit back into the Unit Trust.

In accordance with the provisions of the Trust Deed, listed investments and investments with prices quoted in over-the-counter markets or by market makers are stated at the last traded price on the valuation day for the purpose of determining the Net Asset Value per unit for subscriptions and redemptions and for various fee calculations.

Net assets attributable to holders of redeemable participating units represent a liability in the Statement of Financial Position, carried at the redemption amount that would be payable at the Statement of Financial Position date if the unitholder exercised the right to redeem the unit to the Fund.

(i) Transaction costs

Transaction costs are incremental costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition, issue or disposal of a financial asset or financial liability. An incremental cost is one that would not have been incurred if the entity had not acquired, issued or disposed of the financial instrument. When a financial asset or financial liability is recognised initially, an entity shall measure it at its fair value through profit or loss plus transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition or issue of the financial asset or financial liability. They include fees and commissions paid to agents, advisers, brokers or dealers. Transaction costs are included in the 'net fair value gain/(loss) on financial assets at fair value through profit or loss' in the Statement of Comprehensive Income for each individual Fund. See note 6, 'Significant agreements and fees', for further information on transaction costs.

Distributions in respect of Barings Global Bond Fund distributions may be paid out of capital and/or any surplus net income and/or any capital gains less realised and unrealized capital losses. Accumulating share classes will not pay distributions.

(k) Net income equalisation

Net income equalisation is accrued net income included in the price of units purchased and redeemed during the accounting year. The subscription price of units is deemed to include an equalisation payment calculated by reference to the accrued net income of the relevant Fund, and the first distribution in respect of any unit will include a payment of income usually equal to the amount of such equalisation payment. The redemption price of each unit will also include an equalisation payment in respect of the accrued net income of the relevant Fund up to the date of redemption. Income equalisation is detailed on the statement of changes in net assets of each Fund where applicable.

The management fee is payable monthly in arrears and is calculated and accrued by reference to the Net Asset Value of each Funds as at each business day ("valuation day").

Where the Net Asset Value of any Fund includes interests in any Investment Fund managed by a subsidiary of the parent company (a "Barings Fund"), the fee payable to the Manager relating to the holding will be reduced by the percentage rate (if any) charged to the Barings Fund for comparable management services.

8. Financial risk management

In accordance with FRS 102: Disclosure, this note details the way in which the Funds manage risks associated with the use of financial instruments.

The Funds of the Unit Trust are exposed to a variety of financial risks in pursuing their stated investment objectives and policies. These risks include, but are not limited to, credit risk, liquidity risk and market risk (which in turn includes foreign currency risk, interest rate risk and market price risk). The Funds assume exposure to certain of these risks to generate investment returns on their portfolios, although these risks can also potentially result in a reduction in the Funds' net assets.

The Investment Manager will use its best endeavours to minimise the potentially adverse effects of these risks on the Funds' performance where it can do so, while still managing the investments of the Funds in a way that is consistent with the Funds' investment objectives.

The investment objective of the Funds is disclosed in the Prospectus and in the Investment Objective and Policy on page 4. The risks, and the measures adopted by the Funds for managing these risks, are detailed below.

The nature and extent of the financial instruments outstanding at the Statement of Financial Position date and the risk management policies employed by the Funds are discussed below. These policies have remained substantially unchanged since the beginning of the financial year to which these financial statements relate.

Market risk

Market risk embodies the potential for both losses and gains and included foreign currency risk, interest rate risk and price risk, which are discussed in detail under separate headings within this note.

Barings International Umbrella Fund

For the financial year ended 30 April 2023

8. Financial risk management (continued)

The Funds' exposure to market risk is that the value of assets would generally fluctuate with, among other things, general economic conditions, the condition of certain financial markets, international political events and developments or trends in any particular industry that the Funds' invested in.

The Funds' market risk is managed on a daily basis by the Investment Manager in accordance with policy and procedures in place. The Funds' overall market positions are reported to the Board of Directors on a monthly basis.

As the majority of the financial instruments are carried at fair value through the profit or loss, all changes in market conditions directly impact the net assets of the Funds.

Foreign currency risk

Foreign currency risk is defined in FRS 102 as "the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in foreign exchange rates."

The Funds are exposed to foreign currency risk as assets and liabilities of the Funds may be denominated in a currency other than the functional currency of the Funds, which is the US dollar and Euro. The fluctuations in the rate of exchange between the currency in which the asset or liability is denominated and the functional currency could result in an appreciation or depreciation in the fair value of those assets and liabilities. The Investment Manager is permitted but not obliged to use hedging techniques to attempt to offset market and foreign currency risk.

In accordance with the Unit Trust's policy, the Investment Manager monitors the Funds' currency exposures on a daily basis and reports regularly to the Directors of the Manager, who review the information provided by the Investment Manager on any significant exposures at their periodic meetings.

The Investment Manager may have used FFCTs on Funds as a tool and technique to hedge these currency exposures. Barings Global Bond Fund's sensitivity to changes in foreign currency rates is included in the VaR risk analysis above.

The Funds' portfolio statements detail the currency, and therefore the foreign currency risk, of the underlying investments.

Foreign exchange transactions and other currency contracts may also be used to provide protection against exchange risks or to actively overlay currency views onto the Funds' currency exposure resulting from investing in foreign markets. Such contracts may, at the discretion of the Investment Manager, be used to hedge some or all of the exchange risk/currency risk arising as a result of the fluctuation between the denominated currency of the Funds and the currencies in which the Funds' investments are denominated, or to pursue an active currency overlay strategy.

A Fund may (but is not obliged to) enter into certain currency-related transactions in order to hedge the currency exposure of the assets of a Fund attributable to a particular class into the currency of denomination of the relevant class. Any financial instruments used to implement such strategies with respect to one or more classes shall be assets/liabilities of a Fund as a whole but will be attributable to the relevant class/es, and the gains/losses on, and the costs of, the relevant financial instruments will accrue solely to the relevant class.

Any currency exposure of a class may not be combined with or offset against that of any other class of a Fund. The currency exposure of the assets attributable to a class may not be allocated to other classes. A class will not be leveraged as a result of currency hedging transactions so that the use of such hedging instruments shall in no case exceed 100% of the Net Asset Value attributable to the relevant class of a Fund.

The tables overleaf represent each Fund's exposure to foreign currency as at 30 April 2023 and 30 April 2022. All amounts are stated in the functional currency of the relevant Fund.

Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk defined in FRS 102 as “the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates”.

The Barings Global Bond Fund holds fixed-interest rate debt securities which are exposed to fair value interest rate risk where the value of these securities may fluctuate as a result of a change in market interest rates.

All other financial assets and financial liabilities, with the exception of cash at bank balances and overdrawn cash, held by the Funds are not directly exposed to interest rate risk. The Funds are exposed to interest rate risk on the interest earned on their cash and bank balances, and paid on overdrawn cash. This exposure is not considered to be significant.

Interest rate risks are managed by the Investment Manager, whose management of interest rate risk is monitored through regular performance reviews with senior managers as well as through monthly peer reviews of positioning held with senior managers. Individual managers are authorised to initiate fixed-income trades within pre-set limits.

Barings Global Bond Fund’s sensitivity to changes in interest rates is included in the VAR Analysis on page 84.

Market price risk

Market price risk is defined in FRS 102 as “the risk that the fair value of a financial instrument or its future cash flows will fluctuate because of changes in market prices.”

The Funds’ assets consist principally of equity instruments except for Baring Global Bond Fund, which consists of bonds, futures and FFCTs. The values of these instruments are determined by market forces and accordingly there is a risk that market prices can change in a way that is adverse to the Funds’ performance. The Funds have adopted a number of investment restrictions set out in the Unit Trust’s Prospectus, which limit the exposure of the Funds to adverse changes in the price of any individual financial asset.

In accordance with the Funds’ policies, the Investment Manager monitors the Funds’ positions on a daily basis and reports regularly to the Directors of the Manager, which review the information on the Funds’ overall market exposures provided by the Investment Manager at its periodic meetings.

The Investment Manager uses three techniques to help in the risk management process: monitoring of compliance and quantitative limits, prevention of limit breaches and trade monitoring. These techniques allow the Investment Manager to ensure that the Funds remain in compliance with the restrictions in the Prospectus and the UCITS regulations under which the Funds are governed.

In addition, the Investment Manager manages the exposure of the portfolio to the risk of adverse changes in the general level of market prices, as determined by market forces, through adhering to its formal risk management process, which includes the use of systems and technology to monitor overall market and position risk on a daily basis.

Sensitivity analysis

The below price sensitivity analysis information is a relative estimate of risk and is not intended to be a precise and accurate number. The calculations are based on historical data. Future price movements could vary significantly from those experienced in the past.

Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is defined in FRS 102 as “the risk that an entity will encounter difficulty in meeting obligations associated with financial liabilities that are settled by delivering of cash or another financial asset”.

The Funds are exposed to daily cash redemptions of units. However, the Manager is entitled, with the approval of the Depositary, to limit the number of units of any class realised on any dealing day to 10% of the total number of units of that class in issue. There are also a number of circumstances where the Manager may, with the approval of the Depositary, temporarily suspend the right of unitholders to require the realisation of units of any class and/or may delay the payment of any monies in respect of any such realisation.

The Funds invest the majority of their assets in securities and other instruments that are traded on an active market and which are considered to be liquid as they can be readily disposed of in the event that cash needs to be raised to meet redemptions or to pay expenses.

In accordance with the Funds' policy, the Investment Manager monitors the Funds' liquidity on a daily basis and reports regularly to the Directors of the Manager, who review the information provided by the Investment Manager on significant exposures at their periodic meetings.

There is a bank overdraft facility in place with The Northern Trust Company (“TNTC”). An “uncommitted” multi-currency loan facility has been made available by TNTC to the Funds. During the financial year ended 30 April 2023, Barings ASEAN Frontiers Fund, Barings Asia Growth Fund, Barings Australia Fund, Barings Europa Fund, Barings Hong Kong China Fund, Barings Global Bond Fund, Barings Europe Select Fund, Barings German Growth Fund and Barings Global Dividend Champions Fund had drawn down on this facility (30 April 2022: Barings ASEAN Frontiers Fund, Barings Asia Growth Fund, Barings Australia Fund, Barings Europa Fund, Barings Hong Kong China Fund, Barings Global Bond Fund).

As at 30 April 2022, Barings Europa Fund and Barings Australia Fund payables are all categorised within less than 1 month category.

Credit risk

Credit risk is defined in FRS 102 as “the risk that one party to a financial instrument will cause a financial loss for the other party by failing to discharge an obligation.”

The Funds’ holdings/securities consist principally of equity instruments, and are not directly exposed to credit risk from these positions with the exception of Barings Global Bond Fund, which consists of bonds and is directly exposed to credit risk.

Credit risk statement

Northern Trust Fiduciary Services (Ireland) Limited (“NTFSIL”) is the appointed Depositary of the Unit Trust, responsible for the safe-keeping of assets. NTFSIL has appointed The Northern Trust Company (“TNTC”) as its global sub-custodian. Both NTFSIL and TNTC are wholly owned subsidiaries of Northern Trust Corporation (“NTC”). As at year-end date of 30 April 2023, NTC had a long term credit rating from Standards and Poor’s of A+.

TNTC (as global sub-custodian of NTFSIL) does not appoint external sub-custodians within the U.S., the U.K., Ireland, Canada, Belgium, France, Germany, Netherlands and Saudi Arabia. However, in all other markets, TNTC appoints local external sub-custodians.

NTFSIL, in the discharge of its depositary duties, verifies the Unit Trust’s ownership of Other Assets, (as defined under Other Assets, Art 22(5) of UCITS V Directive 2014/91/EU) by assessing whether the Unit Trust holds the ownership, based on information or documents provided by the Fund or, where available, on external evidence.

TNTC, in the discharge of its delegated depositary duties, holds in custody (i) all financial instruments that may be registered in a financial instruments account opened on the books of TNTC and (ii) all financial instruments that can be physically delivered to TNTC. TNTC ensures all financial instruments (held in a financial instruments account on the books of TNTC) are held in segregated accounts in the name of the Fund, clearly identifiable as belonging to the Fund, and distinct and separately from the proprietary assets of TNTC, NTFSIL and NTC.

In addition, TNTC, as banker, holds cash of the Fund on deposit. Such cash is held on the Statement of Financial Position of TNTC. In the event of insolvency of TNTC, in accordance with standard banking practice, the Fund will rank as an unsecured creditor of TNTC in respect of any cash deposits.

Where relevant please note the following currencies, Jordanian Dinar, Saudi Riyal, cash in the onshore China market (principally the currency of Chinese Yuan Renminbi, and any other currencies remitted into accounts in the onshore China market), are no longer held on the Balance Sheet of TNTC. For these off-book currencies, clients’ cash exposure is directly to the relevant local sub-custodian / financial institution in the market.

Insolvency of NTFSIL and or one of its agents or affiliates may cause the Fund’s rights with respect to its assets to be delayed.

The Responsible Party manages risk by monitoring the credit quality and financial position of the Depositary and such risk is further managed by the Depositary monitoring the credit quality and financial positions of sub-custodian appointments.

Northern Trust continually reviews its sub-custodian network to ensure clients have access to the most efficient, creditworthy and cost-effective provider in each market.

The Investment Manager reviews concentrations of credit risk on a fortnightly basis. All exposures to counterparty credit risk are monitored by Baring Asset Management Limited's Counterparty Credit Committee and are subject to Baring Asset Management Limited's Counterparty Credit Policy ("CCP"). Baring Asset Management Limited requires a minimum credit rating of Dunn and Bradstreet ("D&B") 3, but also actively avoids exposure to entities having an S&P rating of less than AA-, even where the D&B rating is 3 or better. Adherence to the CCP is very rigidly enforced. Any changes to ratings which cause divergence from CCP are acted on immediately without exception. Application for Initial Public Offerings ("IPOs"), for example, is subject to the credit rating of the entity to whose Statement of Financial Position the application will expose the investing fund. Where no satisfactory rating is applied, Baring Asset Management Limited insists that monies are paid into a ring-fenced 'Client Money' account, hence avoiding exposure not permitted by the CCP. The Funds minimize concentrations of credit risk by undertaking transactions with a large number of regulated counterparties on recognised and reputable exchanges.

Credit risk arising from receivables relating to unsettled trades is considered small due to the short settlement period involved. The maximum exposure related to unsettled trades equals the amounts shown on the Statement of Financial Position. There were no past due or impaired assets as of 30 April 2023 (30 April 2022: Nil).

The Funds are exposed to counterparty risk on parties with whom it trades and will bear the risk of settlement default. The Funds may enter into transactions with over the counter ("OTC") counterparties, including counterparties to OTC derivative instruments, whereby margin or collateral is posted or received by the Fund with the counterparty, outside of the control of the Depositary or the Depositary's agents.

9. Fair value hierarchy

FRS 102 requires the Funds to classify fair value measurements using a fair value hierarchy that reflects the significance of the inputs used in making the measurements. The fair value hierarchy has the following levels:

- Level 1: Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.
- Level 2: Inputs other than quoted prices included within level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly (that is, as prices) or indirectly (that is, derived from prices).
- Level 3: Inputs for the asset or liability that are not based on observable market data (that is, unobservable inputs).

The level in the fair value hierarchy within which the fair value measurement is categorised in its entirety is determined on the basis of the lowest input that is significant to the fair value measurement in its entirety. For this purpose, the significance of an input is assessed against the fair value measurement in its entirety. If a fair value measurement uses observable inputs that require significant adjustment based on unobservable inputs, that measurement is a level 3 measurement. Assessing the significance of a particular input to the fair value measurement in its entirety requires judgement, taking into consideration factors specific to the asset or liability.

The determination of what constitutes 'observable' requires significant judgement by the Manager. The Manager considers observable data to be market data that is readily available, regularly distributed or updated, reliable and verifiable, not proprietary, and provided by independent sources that are actively involved in the relevant market.

The following tables analyse, within the fair value hierarchy, the fund's financial assets and financial liabilities measured at fair value.

10. Efficient portfolio management

The Funds may use Financial Derivative Instruments (“FDIs”) for efficient portfolio management. The efficient portfolio management purposes for which the Unit Trust intends to employ FDIs are reduction of risk, reduction of cost and the generation of additional capital or income for the relevant Fund with an appropriate level of risk, taking into account the risk profile of the Fund and the general provisions of the UCITS Regulations. The Unit Trust may use various types of derivatives for these purposes, including, without limitation, forwards, futures, options, swaps (including but not limited to total return swaps, credit default swaps, and IRSs) and contracts for differences for these purposes.

Risk Monitoring of Global Exposure

The method used to determine the global exposure for Barings Global Bond Fund is Value at Risk (“VaR”). VaR is calculated daily using Risk Metrics.

Barings ASEAN Frontiers Fund, Barings Asia Growth Fund, Barings Australia Fund, Barings Europa Fund, Barings Hong Kong China Fund, Barings Europe Select Fund, Barings German Growth Fund and Barings Global Dividend Champions Fund used the commitment approach to calculate their global exposure as described in detail in the risk management process of the Investment Manager.

10. Efficient portfolio management (continued)

The Commitment Approach has been calculated, in the case of FFCT's, by converting the FFCT position into an equivalent position based on the market value of the underlying asset. As the Financial Derivative Instruments ("FDI") are used for hedging purposes, the exposure of the FDI has been calculated and then netted against the instrument being hedged. The Global Exposure calculation is performed on a daily basis.

In no circumstances will the global exposure of a Fund exceed 100% of its Net Asset Value.

For relative VaR: the Fund's VaR is shown as a percentage of the VaR of the performance comparator or reference portfolio to ensure that the relative figure is within an internal limit. This limit is set lower than a multiple of two (or 200%) of the performance comparison or reference portfolio VaR.

For absolute VaR: the Fund's VaR is shown as a percentage of the Funds' Net Asset Value and is monitored against an internal limit. This limit is set lower than 20%.

Fund Name	Fund Relative VaR over the past financial year				Performance comparator or reference portfolio
	30 April 2023	30 April 2022	Lowest	Highest
Barings Global Bond Fund	104.24%	98.98%	66.40%	166.19%	128.96%	FTSE WGBI

Fund Name	Absolute VaR over the past financial year
	30 April 2023	30 April 2022	Lowest	Highest	Mean
Barings Global Bond Fund	6.05%	3.94%	2.59%	8.13%	6.45%
FTSE WGB	5.81%	3.98%	3.94%	5.88%	5.10%

Some limitations of VaR analysis are:

- the methodology is based on historical data and cannot take account of the fact that future market price movements, correlations between markets and levels of market liquidity in conditions of market stress may bear no relation to historical patterns; and
- the VaR is a point-in-time calculation, and does not necessarily reflect the risk position of the Funds at any time other than the date and time at which it is calculated.

15. Taxation (continued)

However, Irish tax may arise if a "chargeable event" occurs. A chargeable event includes any distribution payments to unitholders or any encashment, redemption, cancellation, transfer or deemed disposal of shares for Irish tax purposes arising as a result of holding shares in the Unit Trust for a period of eight years or more, or the appropriation or cancellation of shares of a unitholder by the Unit Trust for the purposes of meeting the amount of tax payable on a gain arising on a transfer.

No Irish tax will arise on the Unit Trust in respect of chargeable events due to:

(a) a unitholder who is neither Irish resident nor ordinarily resident in Ireland for tax purposes at the time of the chargeable event, provided that a relevant declaration is in place (in accordance with Schedule 2b of the TCA) and the Unit Trust is not in possession of any information which would reasonably suggest that the information contained therein is no longer materially correct; or

(b) a unitholder who is an exempt Irish investor (as defined in Section 739D TCA).

Dividends, interest and capital gains (if any) received on investments made by the Unit Trust may be subject to withholding taxes imposed by the country from which the investment income/gains are received and such taxes may not be recoverable by the Unit Trust or its unitholders.

The Finance Act 2010 provides that the Revenue Commissioners may grant approval for Unit Trust Investment Undertakings marketed outside of Ireland to make payments to non-resident investors without deduction of Irish tax where no relevant declaration is in place, subject to meeting "equivalent measures". A Unit Trust Investment Undertakings wishing to receive approval must apply in writing to the Revenue Commissioners, confirming compliance with the relevant conditions.

Russia/Ukraine conflict

In response to the Russian invasion of Ukraine, the EU, the U.S., the UK and other governmental entities have passed a variety of severe economic sanctions and export controls against Russia, including imposition of sanctions against Russia's Central Bank and largest financial institutions. In addition, a number of businesses have curtailed or suspended activities in Russia or dealings with Russian counterparts for reputational reasons. While current sanctions may not target the the Unit Trust, the Funds, the Manager or the Portfolio Investments and their issuers and industries in which the issuers of the Portfolio Investments operate, these sanctions have had and may continue to have the effect of causing significant economic disruption and may adversely impact the global economy generally, and the Russian economy specifically by, among other things, creating instability in the energy sectors, reducing trade as a result of economic sanctions and increased volatility and uncertainty in financial markets, including Russia's financial sector. Additionally, any new or expanded sanctions that may be imposed by the U.S., EU, UK, or other countries may materially adversely affect the Manager's operations, including the Funds and the Portfolio Investments.

There have been no other significant events to the financial year-end that, in the opinion of the Directors of the Manager, may have had an impact on the financial statements for the financial year ended 30 April 2023.

The old fund remains a sub-fund of Barings Global Umbrella Fund, containing the impacted Belarusian, Russian and Ukrainian assets and has been re-named Barings Eastern Europe (SP) Fund.

Barings International Umbrella Fund

General information (Unaudited)

For the financial year ended 30 April 2023

Market timing

Repeatedly purchasing and selling units in the Funds in response to short-term market fluctuations – known as ‘market timing’ – can disrupt Baring Asset Management Limited’s (the “Investment Manager”) investment strategy and increase the Funds’ expenses to the prejudice of all unitholders. The Funds are not intended for market timing or excessive trading. To deter these activities, the Directors of Baring International Fund Managers (Ireland) limited (the “Manager”) may refuse to accept an application for units from persons that they reasonably believe are engaged in market timing or are otherwise excessive or potentially disruptive to the Funds.

The Directors of the Manager reserve the right to redeem units from a unitholder on the basis of the circumstances of the unitholder concerned, or if it has reasonable grounds to believe that the unitholder is engaging in any activity which might result in the Funds or their unitholders as a whole suffering any legal, regulatory, reputational or other material disadvantage which the Funds or their unitholders as a whole might not otherwise have suffered.

UK reporting fund status

UK taxable investors in UK reporting funds are subject to tax on their units of the UK reporting funds’ income attributable to their holdings in the Fund, whether or not distributed, while typically any gains on disposal of their holdings are subject to capital gains tax.

Details of the unit classes which currently have UK reporting fund status are available at the Her Majesty’s Revenue and Customs (“HMRC”) Collective Investment Schemes Centre website:

<http://www.hmrc.gov.uk/cisc/offshore-funds.htm>.

As stated above UK tax payers should note that, for each unit class with reporting fund status, their share of any amounts of income, if any, that has not been distributed will be subject to tax.

Further details will be made available on the Barings website: www.barings.com.

Special risks resulting from tax publication requirements in Germany

Foreign investment companies (such as Baring International Fund Managers (Ireland) Limited (the “Manager”)) must provide documentation to the German fiscal authorities upon request, e.g. in order to verify the accuracy of the published tax information. The basis upon which such figures are calculated is open to interpretation and it cannot be guaranteed that the German fiscal authorities will accept the Manager’s calculation methodology in every material respect. In addition, if it transpires that these publications are incorrect, any subsequent correction will, as a general rule, not have retrospective effect and will, as a general rule, only take effect during the current period. Consequently, the correction may positively or negatively affect the investors who receive a distribution or an attribution of deemed income distributions in the current year.

Sustainable investment means an investment in an economic activity that contributes to an environmental or social objective, provided that the investment does not significantly harm any environmental or social objective and that the investee companies follow good governance practices.

The EU Taxonomy is a classification system laid down in Regulation (EU) 2020/852, establishing a list of environmentally sustainable economic activities. That Regulation does not lay down a list of socially sustainable economic activities. Sustainable investments with an environmental objective might be aligned with the Taxonomy or not.

Sustainability indicators measure how the environmental or social characteristics promoted by the financial product are attained.

- To what extent were the environmental and/or social characteristics promoted by this financial product met?

The environmental and social characteristics promoted by the Fund will be to invest at least 50% of its total assets in equities of companies that exhibit positive or improving environmental ("E"), social ("S") and governance("G")("ESG") characteristics.

As at 30 April 2023, the Fund met its environmental and/or social characteristics as the percentage of investments in its portfolio with positive and improving ESG characteristics was 83.72% (excluding cash, cash equivalents and hedging instruments).

- How did the sustainability indicators perform?

The sustainability indicator used to measure the attainment of the environmental and social characteristics promoted by the Fund was the percentage of the Fund's total assets invested in equities of companies that exhibit positive or improving ESG characteristics. Companies defined as having positive or improving ESG characteristics must be assessed as having a higher than average quality score, and not exceed a maximum adjustment to its Barings ESG cost of equity ("CoE") threshold.

As at 30 April 2023, the Fund's percentage of investments in its portfolio with positive and improving ESG characteristics was 83.72% (excluding cash, cash equivalents and hedging instruments), which was 33.72% above the minimum threshold.

- And compared to previous periods?

This is the first periodic report prepared for the Fund in accordance with Regulation (EU) 2022/1288.

The “do no significant harm” principle applies only to those investments underlying the financial product that take into account the EU criteria for environmentally sustainable economic activities. The investments underlying the remaining portion of this financial product do not take into account the EU criteria for environmentally sustainable economic activities.

Any other sustainable investments must also not significantly harm any environmental or social objectives.

- How did this financial product consider principal adverse impacts on sustainability factors?

During the reference period, the Investment Manager considered the following principal adverse impacts (PAIs) of each investment as part of its proprietary investment process: GHG emissions, carbon footprint and GHG intensity of investee companies and exposure to companies active in the fossil fuel, board gender diversity and exposure to controversial weapons. The Investment Manager did not directly invest in companies that violate international conventions on cluster munitions, antipersonnel mines and chemical and biological weapons. The Investment Manager did not knowingly hold securities that are materially involved in the production, stockpiling and use of these weapons at the time of investment.

Principal adverse impacts are the most significant negative impacts of investment decisions on sustainability factors relating to environmental, social and employee matters, respect for human rights, anti-corruption and anti-bribery matters.

Barings International Umbrella Fund

Appendix 6 – Sustainability Related Disclosures (Unaudited)

What investments were included under “other”, what was their purpose and were there any minimum environmental or social safeguards?

The investments included under "Other" comprise of Companies which do not exhibit positive or improving E and / or S characteristics but are included in the Fund where the Investment Manager, after conducting proprietary fundamental analysis and taking into account portfolio construction considerations, identified mispriced investment opportunities on a longer term basis, centred on the Investment Manager's understanding of the company's strategy and the potential to improve returns and grow earnings. However, the Investment Manager divested from and did not invest in companies which have a quality score of 5 – the worst level on the Investment Manager's scale of 1 to 5 – and an ESG-related modification to the discount rate of +2%.

Additionally, the investments included under "Other" were cash, cash equivalents and hedging instruments. Cash and cash equivalents do not affect the promoted environmental and / or social characteristics of the Fund. The assessment of issuers and of counterparties for cash and hedging instruments focusses on the creditworthiness of these parties, which can be impacted by sustainability risks.

Within the "What was the asset allocation" section of Appendix 6, the Investment Manager has disclosed both the percentage of "Other" when cash, cash equivalents and hedging instruments are considered, and when only portfolio investments are considered.

What actions have been taken to meet the environmental and/or social characteristics during the reference period?

The Investment Manager monitored the environmental and/or social characteristics of the Fund's portfolio during the reference period. The Investment Manager's investment decisions were based on internal research, which encompass both its proprietary financial forecasts and ESG assessment. The Investment Manager aimed to meet with all companies in which it sought to invest at least annually and discuss a range of topics including ESG issues with management. The Investment Manager, through access to third party ESG research providers (where coverage allowed) such as MSCI, Sustainalytics and Bloomberg ESG, also sought to understand market consensus on the ESG profile of each issuer. Pre- and post-trade checks were carried out on a daily basis to ensure the Fund continued to meet the minimum threshold of 50%. If the Fund fell below this threshold, due to market movements or because the companies it held no longer met the criteria of a “green” investment, then the passive breach is corrected at the earliest opportunity. The Investment Manager believes that equity markets contain unrecognised growth potential and sought to identify this through the analysis of a company's business model whilst incorporating wider ESG trends often referred to as fundamental analysis. ESG trends may evolve over time and may include environmental footprint, societal impact of products/services and effectiveness of supervisory/management boards. The Investment Manager adopted an active management policy in relation to ESG topics and also focused on engagement to improve issuer disclosure or behaviour. Engagements were undertaken to influence (or identify the need to influence) ESG practices and/or improve ESG disclosure. Through engagement, the Investment Manager aimed to enhance the performance of its investments, for the benefit of investors in line with its stewardship responsibility.

During the reference period, the Investment Manager considered the following principal adverse impacts (PAIs) of each investment as part of its proprietary investment process: GHG emissions, carbon footprint and GHG intensity of investee companies and exposure to companies active in the fossil fuel, board gender diversity and exposure to controversial weapons. The Investment Manager did not directly invest in companies that violate international conventions on cluster munitions, antipersonnel mines and chemical and biological weapons. The Investment Manager did not knowingly hold securities that are materially involved in the production, stockpiling and use of these weapons at the time of investment.

Principal adverse impacts are the most significant negative impacts of investment decisions on sustainability factors relating to environmental, social and employee matters, respect for human rights, anti-corruption and anti-bribery matters.

No

¹ Fossil gas and/or nuclear related activities will only comply with the EU Taxonomy where they contribute to limiting climate change ("climate change mitigation") and do not significantly harm any EU Taxonomy objective – see explanatory note in the left hand margin. Appendix 6 – Sustainability Related Disclosures (Unaudited)

What investments were included under “other”, what was their purpose and were there any minimum environmental or social safeguards?

The investments included under "Other" comprise of Companies which do not exhibit positive or improving E and / or S characteristics but are included in the Fund where the Investment Manager, after conducting proprietary fundamental analysis and taking into account portfolio construction considerations, identified mispriced investment opportunities on a longer term basis, centred on the Investment Manager's understanding of the company's strategy and the potential to improve returns and grow earnings. However, the Investment Manager divested from and did not invest in companies which have a quality score of 5 – the worst level on the Investment Manager's scale of 1 to 5 – and an ESG-related modification to the discount rate of +2%.

Additionally, the investments included under "Other" were cash, cash equivalents and hedging instruments. Cash and cash equivalents do not affect the promoted environmental and / or social characteristics of the Fund. The assessment of issuers and of counterparties for cash and hedging instruments focusses on the creditworthiness of these parties, which can be impacted by sustainability risks.

Within the "What was the asset allocation" section of Appendix 6, the Investment Manager has disclosed both the percentage of "Other" when cash, cash equivalents and hedging instruments are considered, and when only portfolio investments are considered.

What actions have been taken to meet the environmental and/or social characteristics during the reference period?

The Investment Manager monitored the environmental and/or social characteristics of the Fund's portfolio during the reference period. The Investment Manager's investment decisions were based on internal research, which encompass both its proprietary financial forecasts and ESG assessment. The Investment Manager aimed to meet with all companies in which it sought to invest at least annually and discuss a range of topics including ESG issues with management. The Investment Manager, through access to third party ESG research providers (where coverage allowed) such as MSCI, Sustainalytics and Bloomberg ESG, also sought to understand market consensus on the ESG profile of each issuer. Pre- and post-trade checks were carried out on a daily basis to ensure the Fund continued to meet the minimum threshold of 50%. If the Fund fell below this threshold, due to market movements or because the companies it held no longer met the criteria of a "green" investment, then the passive breach is corrected at the earliest opportunity. The Investment Manager believes that equity markets contain unrecognised growth potential and sought to identify this through the analysis of a company's business model whilst incorporating wider ESG trends often referred to as fundamental analysis. ESG trends may evolve over time and may include environmental footprint, societal impact of products/services and effectiveness of supervisory/management boards. The Investment Manager adopted an active management policy in relation to ESG topics and also focused on engagement to improve issuer disclosure or behaviour. Engagements were undertaken to influence (or identify the need to influence) ESG practices and/or improve ESG disclosure. Through engagement, the Investment Manager aimed to enhance the performance of its investments, for the benefit of investors in line with its stewardship responsibility.

Sustainable investment means an investment in an economic activity that contributes to an environmental or social objective, provided that the investment does not significantly harm any environmental or social objective and that the investee companies follow good governance practices.

The EU Taxonomy is a classification system laid down in Regulation (EU) 2020/852, establishing a list of environmentally sustainable economic activities. That Regulation does not lay down a list of socially sustainable economic activities. Sustainable investments with an environmental objective might be aligned with the Taxonomy or not.

Sustainability indicators measure how the environmental or social characteristics promoted by the financial product are attained.

- To what extent were the environmental and/or social characteristics promoted by this financial product met?

The environmental and social characteristics promoted by the Fund will be to invest at least 50% of its total assets in equities of companies that exhibit positive or improving environmental ("E"), social ("S") and governance ("G") ("ESG") characteristics.

- How did the sustainability indicators perform?

The sustainability indicator used to measure the attainment of the environmental and social characteristics promoted by the Fund was the percentage of the Fund's total assets invested in equities of companies that exhibit positive or improving ESG characteristics. Companies defined as having positive or improving ESG characteristics must be assessed as having a higher than average quality score, and not exceed a maximum adjustment to its Barings ESG cost of equity ("CoE") threshold.

As at 30 April 2023, the Fund's percentage of investments in its portfolio with positive and improving ESG characteristics was 95.95% (excluding cash, cash equivalents and hedging instruments), which was 45.95% above the minimum threshold.

Cash and cash equivalents do not affect the promoted environmental and / or social characteristics of the Fund. The assessment of issuers and of counterparties for cash and hedging instruments focusses on the creditworthiness of these parties, which can be impacted by sustainability risks.

Within the "What was the asset allocation" section of Appendix 6, the Investment Manager has disclosed both the percentage of "Other" when cash, cash equivalents and hedging instruments are considered, and when only portfolio investments are considered.

What actions have been taken to meet the environmental and/or social characteristics during the reference period?

The Investment Manager monitored the environmental and/or social characteristics of the Fund's portfolio during the reference period. The Investment Manager's investment decisions were based on internal research, which encompass both its proprietary financial forecasts and ESG assessment. The Investment Manager aimed to meet with all companies in which it sought to invest at least annually and discuss a range of topics including ESG issues with management. The Investment Manager, through access to third party ESG research providers (where coverage allowed) such as MSCI, Sustainalytics and Bloomberg ESG, also sought to understand market consensus on the ESG profile of each issuer. Pre- and post-trade checks were carried out on a daily basis to ensure the Fund continued to meet the minimum threshold of 50%. If the Fund fell below this threshold, due to market movements or because the companies it held no longer met the criteria of a “green” investment, then the passive breach is corrected at the earliest opportunity. The Investment Manager believes that equity markets contain unrecognised growth potential and sought to identify this through the analysis of a company's business model whilst incorporating wider ESG trends often referred to as fundamental analysis. ESG trends may evolve over time and may include environmental footprint, societal impact of products/services and effectiveness of supervisory/management boards. The Investment Manager adopted an active management policy in relation to ESG topics and also focused on engagement to improve issuer disclosure or behaviour. Engagements were undertaken to influence (or identify the need to influence) ESG practices and/or improve ESG disclosure. Through engagement, the Investment Manager aimed to enhance the performance of its investments, for the benefit of investors in line with its stewardship responsibility.

- To what extent were the environmental and/or social characteristics promoted by this financial product met?

The environmental and social characteristics promoted by the Fund will be to invest at least 50% of its Net Asset Value in fixed income securities that exhibit positive or improving environmental ("E"), social ("S") and governance("G")("ESG") characteristics.

As at 30 April 2023, the Fund met its environmental and/or social characteristics as the percentage of investments in its portfolio with positive and improving ESG characteristics was 80.53% (excluding cash, cash equivalents and hedging instruments).

- How did the sustainability indicators perform?

The sustainability indicators used to measure the attainment of the environmental and social characteristics promoted by the Fund were:

1. The percentage of the Fund's Net Asset Value invested in fixed income instruments of countries that exhibit positive or improving ESG characteristics; and
2. The percentage of the Fund's total assets in countries that exhibit strong or improving human development conditions, as measured by the United Nations HDI and calculated as an average of the five year period as of two years prior to the investment period.

As at 30 April 2023, the Fund's percentage of investments in its portfolio with positive and improving ESG characteristics was 80.53% (excluding cash, cash equivalents and hedging instruments), which was 30.53% above the minimum threshold.

As at 30 April 2023, the Fund's total assets in countries that exhibit strong or improving human development conditions was 92.52%, which was 17.52% above the minimum threshold.

Sustainable investment means an investment in an economic activity that contributes to an environmental or social objective, provided that the investment does not significantly harm any environmental or social objective and that the investee companies follow good governance practices.

The EU Taxonomy is a classification system laid down in Regulation (EU) 2020/852, establishing a list of environmentally sustainable economic activities. That Regulation does not lay down a list of socially sustainable economic activities. Sustainable investments with an environmental objective might be aligned with the Taxonomy or not.

Sustainability indicators measure how the environmental or social characteristics promoted by the financial product are attained.

- And compared to previous periods?

This is the first periodic report prepared for the Fund in accordance with Regulation (EU) 2022/1288.

- What were the objectives of the sustainable investments that the financial product partially made and how did the sustainable investment contribute to such objectives?

Not applicable.

- How did the sustainable investments that the financial product partially made not cause significant harm to any environmental or social sustainable investment objective?

Not applicable.

- How were the indicators for adverse impacts on sustainability factors taken into account?

Not applicable.

- Were sustainable investments aligned with the OECD Guidelines for Multinational Enterprises and the UN Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights? Details:

Not applicable.

The EU Taxonomy sets out a “do no significant harm” principle by which Taxonomy-aligned investments should not significantly harm EU Taxonomy objectives and is accompanied by specific EU criteria.

The “do no significant harm” principle applies only to those investments underlying the financial product that take into account the EU criteria for environmentally sustainable economic activities. The investments underlying the remaining portion of this financial product do not take into account the EU criteria for environmentally sustainable economic activities.

Any other sustainable investments must also not significantly harm any environmental or social objectives.

- How did this financial product consider principal adverse impacts on sustainability factors?

During the reference period, Principal Adverse Impact indicators (PAI) indicators were incorporated in the monitoring and analysis of sovereign debt in which the Fund invests. The Investment Manager monitored detailed statistics on carbon intensity of the countries in its investable universe, and has developed its own proprietary metrics of carbon intensity that it believes are the most relevant and adequate to assess the performance of Emerging Markets sovereigns in its investable universe. In addition, the Investment Manager performed detailed social analysis that allowed it to track how Emerging Markets sovereigns are performing in terms of social performance. This led to negative screening and exclusion decisions based on poor social performance. Another important point is that the Investment Manager has established an exclusion list composed of countries in which, according to its assessment, ESG performance is so poor that it will affect any sustainable investment in the country in the short and medium term.

Principal adverse impacts are the most significant negative impacts of investment decisions on sustainability factors relating to environmental, social and employee matters, respect for human rights, anti-corruption and anti-bribery matters.

• To what extent were the sustainable investments with an environmental objective aligned with the EU Taxonomy?

0% of the Fund's investments are sustainable investments with an environmental objective that align with the EU Taxonomy.

• Did the financial product invest in fossil gas and/or nuclear energy related activities complying with the EU Taxonomy¹?

Yes:

 In fossil gas In nuclear energy

 No

¹ Fossil gas and/or nuclear related activities will only comply with the EU Taxonomy where they contribute to limiting climate change (“climate change mitigation”) and do not significantly harm any EU Taxonomy objective – see explanatory note in the left hand margin. The full criteria for fossil gas and nuclear energy economic activities that comply with the EU Taxonomy are laid down in Commission Delegated Regulation (EU) 2022/1214.

The graphs below show in green the percentage of investments that were aligned with the EU Taxonomy. Taxonomy-aligned activities are expressed as a share of:

- turnover reflects the “greenness” of investee companies today.
- capital expenditure (CapEx) shows the green investments made by investee companies, relevant for a transition to a green economy.
- operational expenditure (OpEx) reflects the green operational activities of investee companies.

Enabling activities directly enable other activities to make a substantial contribution to an environmental objective.

Transitional activities are activities for which low-carbon alternatives are not yet available and among others have greenhouse gas emission levels corresponding to the best performance.

- What was the share of investments made in transitional and enabling activities?

The Fund did not make sustainable investments with an environmental objective aligned with the EU Taxonomy during the reference period.

- How did the percentage of investments that were aligned with the EU Taxonomy compare with previous reference periods?

- What was the share of sustainable investments with an environmental objective not aligned with the EU Taxonomy?

Not applicable.

- What was the share of socially sustainable investments?

Not applicable.

- What investments were included under "other", what was their purpose and were there any minimum environmental or social safeguards?

The investments included under "Other" comprised of assets which are held in the portfolio due to a weak ESG starting point with potentially positive catalysts or rate poorly from an ESG perspective but valuations suggest that the investment offers a strong risk/reward for the Fund's portfolio.

Additionally, the investments included under "Other" were cash, cash equivalents and hedging instruments. Cash and cash equivalents do not affect the promoted environmental and / or social characteristics of the Fund. The assessment of issuers and of counterparties for cash and hedging instruments focusses on the creditworthiness of these parties, which can be impacted by sustainability risks.

Within the "What was the asset allocation" section of Appendix 5, the Investment Manager has disclosed both the percentage of "Other" when cash, cash equivalents and hedging instruments are considered, and when only portfolio investments are considered.

What actions have been taken to meet the environmental and/or social characteristics during the reference period?

The Investment Manager monitored the environmental and/or social characteristics of the Fund's portfolio during the reference period. The Investment Manager's investment decisions were based on internal research, which encompass both its proprietary financial forecasts and ESG assessment. The Investment Manager aimed to visit countries to take stock of important aspects of ESG and macroeconomic factors. Countries that exhibit positive or improving ESG characteristics were selected through the Investment Manager's proprietary research, the Investment Manager also had access to third-party resources such as Bloomberg ESG, MSCI ESG and Sustainalytics, which provide institutional investors with issuer-specific ESG data; the approach consisted of a threefold analysis determining a government's capacity and willingness to provide for its population, its resilience to shocks and its ability to grow sustainably, using both a standard set of indicators and qualitative analysis.

For each asset, the Investment Manager examined the scores of the indicators to determine a country's sustainability over time and considered relevant shocks that may have impacted the scoring. These indicators, as well as the Investment Manager's specialised country expertise, were placed into the capacity and willingness framework to determine the country's current sustainability as well as potential trends that should be considered from an ESG perspective. The frequency of update for each country depends on its significance in the portfolio and the benchmark, but ESG scores were reviewed for all countries under coverage at least twice during the period by the Sovereign ESG Committee which comprises all sovereign analysts on the Investment Manager's team.

The Investment Manager adopted an active management policy in relation to ESG topics and had a preference to focus on engagement to improve issuer behaviour. Engagements were undertaken to influence (or identify the need to influence) ESG practices and/or improve ESG disclosure. Through engagement, the Investment Manager aimed to enhance the performance of its investments, for the benefit of investors in line with its stewardship responsibility.

Sustainability indicators measure how the environmental or social characteristics promoted by the financial product are attained.

- To what extent were the environmental and/or social characteristics promoted by this financial product met?

The environmental and social characteristics promoted by the Fund will be to invest at least 50% of its total assets in equities of companies that exhibit positive or improving environmental ("E"), social ("S") and governance("G")("ESG") characteristics.

The investments underlying the remaining portion of this financial product do not take into account the EU criteria for environmentally sustainable economic activities.

Any other sustainable investments must also not significantly harm any environmental or social objectives.

- How did this financial product consider principal adverse impacts on sustainability factors?

During the reference period, the Investment Manager considered the following principal adverse impacts (PAIs) of each investment as part of its proprietary investment process: GHG emissions, carbon footprint and GHG intensity of investee companies and exposure to companies active in the fossil fuel, board gender diversity and exposure to controversial weapons. The Investment Manager did not directly invest in companies that violate international conventions on cluster munitions, antipersonnel mines and chemical and biological weapons. The Investment Manager did not knowingly hold securities that are materially involved in the production, stockpiling and use of these weapons at the time of investment.

What investments were included under “other”, what was their purpose and were there any minimum environmental or social safeguards?

The investments included under "Other" comprise of Companies which do not exhibit positive or improving E and / or S characteristics but are included in the Fund where the Investment Manager, after conducting proprietary fundamental analysis and taking into account portfolio construction considerations, identified mispriced investment opportunities on a longer term basis, centred on the Investment Manager’s understanding of the company’s strategy and the potential to improve returns and grow earnings. However, the Investment Manager divested from and did not invest in companies which have a quality score of 5 – the worst level on the Investment Manager’s scale of 1 to 5 – and an ESG-related modification to the discount rate of +2%.

Additionally, the investments included under "Other" were cash, cash equivalents and hedging instruments. Cash and cash equivalents do not affect the promoted environmental and / or social characteristics of the Fund. The assessment of issuers and of counterparties for cash and hedging instruments focusses on the creditworthiness of these parties, which can be impacted by sustainability risks.

Within the "What was the asset allocation" section of Appendix 6, the Investment Manager has disclosed both the percentage of "Other" when cash, cash equivalents and hedging instruments are considered, and when only portfolio investments are considered.

What actions have been taken to meet the environmental and/or social characteristics during the reference period?

The Investment Manager monitored the environmental and/or social characteristics of the Fund’s portfolio during the reference period. The Investment Manager’s investment decisions were based on internal research, which encompass both its proprietary financial forecasts and ESG assessment. The Investment Manager aimed to meet with all companies in which it sought to invest at least annually and discuss a range of topics including ESG issues with management. The Investment Manager, through access to third party ESG research providers (where coverage allowed) such as MSCI, Sustainalytics and Bloomberg ESG, also sought to understand market consensus on the ESG profile of each issuer. Pre- and post-trade checks were carried out on a daily basis to ensure the Fund continued to meet the minimum threshold of 50%. If the Fund fell below this threshold, due to market movements or because the companies it held no longer met the criteria of a “green” investment, then the passive breach is corrected at the earliest opportunity. The Investment Manager believes that equity markets contain unrecognised growth potential and sought to identify this through the analysis of a company’s business model whilst incorporating wider ESG trends often referred to as fundamental analysis. ESG trends may evolve over time and may include environmental footprint, societal impact of products/services and effectiveness of supervisory/management boards. The Investment Manager adopted an active management policy in relation to ESG topics and also focused on engagement to improve issuer disclosure or behaviour. As at 30 April 2023, the Fund met its environmental and/or social characteristics as the percentage of investments in its portfolio with positive and improving ESG characteristics was 96.92% (excluding cash, cash equivalents and hedging instruments).

- How did the sustainability indicators perform?

The sustainability indicator used to measure the attainment of the environmental and social characteristics promoted by the Fund was the percentage of the Fund's total assets invested in equities of companies that exhibit positive or improving ESG characteristics. Companies defined as having positive or improving ESG characteristics must be assessed as having a higher than average quality score, and not exceed a maximum adjustment to its Barings ESG cost of equity ("CoE") threshold.

As at 30 April 2023, the Fund's percentage of investments in its portfolio with positive and improving ESG characteristics was 96.92% (excluding cash, cash equivalents and hedging instruments), which was 46.92% above the minimum threshold.

- And compared to previous periods?

This is the first periodic report prepared for the Fund in accordance with Regulation (EU) 2022/1288.

Sustainability indicators measure how the environmental or social characteristics promoted by the financial product are attained.

- What were the objectives of the sustainable investments that the financial product partially made and how did the sustainable investment contribute to such objectives?

Not applicable.

- How did the sustainable investments that the financial product partially made not cause significant harm to any environmental or social sustainable investment objective?

Not applicable.

- How were the indicators for adverse impacts on sustainability factors taken into account?

Not applicable.

- Were sustainable investments aligned with the OECD Guidelines for Multinational Enterprises and the UN Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights? Details:

Not applicable.

The EU Taxonomy sets out a “do no significant harm” principle by which Taxonomy-aligned investments should not significantly harm EU Taxonomy objectives and is accompanied by specific EU criteria.

The “do no significant harm” principle applies only to those investments underlying the financial product that take into account the EU criteria for environmentally sustainable economic activities. The investments underlying the remaining portion of this financial product do not take into account the EU criteria for environmentally sustainable economic activities.

Any other sustainable investments must also not significantly harm any environmental or social objectives.

- How did this financial product consider principal adverse impacts on sustainability factors?

During the reference period, the Investment Manager considered the following principal adverse impacts (PAIs) of each investment as part of its proprietary investment process: GHG emissions, carbon footprint and GHG intensity of investee companies and exposure to companies active in the fossil fuel, board gender diversity and exposure to controversial weapons. The Investment Manager did not directly invest in companies that violate international conventions on cluster munitions, antipersonnel mines and chemical and biological weapons. The Investment Manager did not knowingly hold securities that are materially involved in the production, stockpiling and use of these weapons at the time of investment.

Principal adverse impacts are the most significant negative impacts of investment decisions on sustainability factors relating to environmental, social and employee matters, respect for human rights, anti-corruption and anti-bribery matters.

- Did the financial product invest in fossil gas and/or nuclear energy related activities complying with the EU Taxonomy¹?

Yes:
 In fossil gas
 In nuclear energy

No

¹ Fossil gas and/or nuclear related activities will only comply with the EU Taxonomy where they contribute to limiting climate change (“climate change mitigation”) and do not significantly harm any EU Taxonomy objective – see explanatory note in the left hand margin. The full criteria for fossil gas and nuclear energy economic activities that comply with the EU Taxonomy are laid down in Commission Delegated Regulation (EU) 2022/1214.

Taxonomy-aligned activities are expressed as a share of:

- turnover reflects the “greenness” of investee companies today.
- capital expenditure (CapEx) shows the green investments made by investee companies, relevant for a transition to a green economy.
- operational expenditure (OpEx) reflects the green operational activities of investee companies.

The graphs below show in green the percentage of investments that were aligned with the EU Taxonomy. As there is no appropriate methodology to determine the taxonomy-alignment of sovereign bonds*, the first graph shows the Taxonomy alignment in relation to all the investments of the financial product including sovereign bonds, while the second graph shows the Taxonomy alignment only in relation to the investments of the financial product other than sovereign bonds.

*For the purpose of these graphs, 'sovereign bonds' consist of all sovereign exposures

Enabling activities directly enable other activities to make a substantial contribution to an environmental objective.

Transitional activities are activities for which low-carbon alternatives are not yet available and among others have greenhouse gas emission levels corresponding to the best performance.

- What was the share of socially sustainable investments?

Not applicable.

Appendix 6 – Sustainability Related Disclosures (Unaudited)

What investments were included under “other”, what was their purpose and were there any minimum environmental or social safeguards?

The investments included under "Other" comprise of Companies which do not exhibit positive or improving E and / or S characteristics but are included in the Fund where the Investment Manager, after conducting proprietary fundamental analysis and taking into account portfolio construction considerations, identified mispriced investment opportunities on a longer term basis, centred on the Investment Manager's understanding of the company's strategy and the potential to improve returns and grow earnings. However, the Investment Manager divested from and did not invest in companies which have a quality score of 5 – the worst level on the Investment Manager's scale of 1 to 5 – and an ESG-related modification to the discount rate of +2%.

Additionally, the investments included under "Other" were cash, cash equivalents and hedging instruments. Cash and cash equivalents do not affect the promoted environmental and / or social characteristics of the Fund. The assessment of issuers and of counterparties for cash and hedging instruments focusses on the creditworthiness of these parties, which can be impacted by sustainability risks.

Within the "What was the asset allocation" section of Appendix 6, the Investment Manager has disclosed both the percentage of "Other" when cash, cash equivalents and hedging instruments are considered, and when only portfolio investments are considered.

What actions have been taken to meet the environmental and/or social characteristics during the reference period?

The Investment Manager monitored the environmental and/or social characteristics of the Fund's portfolio during the reference period. The Investment Manager's investment decisions were based on internal research, which encompass both its proprietary financial forecasts and ESG assessment. The Investment Manager aimed to meet with all companies in which it sought to invest at least annually and discuss a range of topics including ESG issues with management. The Investment Manager, through access to third party ESG research providers (where coverage allowed) such as MSCI, Sustainalytics and Bloomberg ESG, also sought to understand market consensus on the ESG profile of each issuer. Pre- and post-trade checks were carried out on a daily basis to ensure the Fund continued to meet the minimum threshold of 50%. If the Fund fell below this threshold, due to market movements or because the companies it held no longer met the criteria of a “green” investment, then the passive breach is corrected at the earliest opportunity. The Investment Manager believes that equity markets contain unrecognised growth potential and sought to identify this through the analysis of a company's business model whilst incorporating wider ESG trends often referred to as fundamental analysis. ESG trends may evolve over time and may include environmental footprint, societal impact of products/services and effectiveness of supervisory/management boards. The Investment Manager adopted an active management policy in relation to ESG topics and also focused on engagement to improve issuer disclosure or behaviour. Engagements were undertaken to influence (or identify the need to influence) ESG practices and/or improve ESG disclosure. Through engagement, the Investment Manager aimed to enhance the performance of its investments, for the benefit of investors in line with its stewardship responsibility.

Appendix 7 – Periodic Disclosure of Promoted Environmental and Social Characteristics (Unaudited)

For the financial year ended 30 April 2023

The Investment Manager integrates ESG (“Environmental, Social and Governance”) information into the investment process across all asset classes. Through bottom-up, fundamental analysis, the Investment Manager seeks to gain a comprehensive understanding of the factors that influence the sustainability of investments. The Investment Manager considers ESG information alongside other crucial variables that may impact an investment’s risks and returns over time. In particular, the Investment Manager considers ESG criteria in relation to specific industry and sector trends and characteristics to identify the risks of an investment. Once invested, the Investment Manager continues to monitor each investment to ensure their thesis, including that on ESG matters, remains intact and that an investment’s risk and return profile remains attractive relative to other opportunities available in the market. Sustainability risks that the Investment Manager may consider are environmental, social or governance events or conditions that, if they occur, could cause an actual or a potential material negative impact on the value of the investment, examples of which include physical environmental risks, transition risk (e.g. investee company assets losing their financial value because of tightening of environmental legislation) or liability risk (e.g. risk of liability due to a breach of human/employee rights considering the jurisdiction of the investee company).

All Funds integrate ESG into their investment process but the following Funds will also promote ESG by investing or seeking to positively influence business practices to improve ESG characteristics and are therefore categorised under Article 8 of the Sustainable Finance Disclosure Regulations (“SFDR”):
