Objectives and investment policy

The fund seeks to provide a high level of long-term total return, of which current income is a significant component, by investing primarily in local currency denominated government and corporate bonds.

Essential features

The fund invests primarily in bonds that are admitted to an official listing or traded on other regulated markets. The fund normally invests in bonds of issuers in emerging markets; in countries with a credit rating of Ba or lower or BB or lower; in countries that are or have been in the past five years on an International Monetary Fund ("IMF") program; or in countries that have outstanding liabilities with the IMF. Bonds from issuers in countries with significant exposure to emerging markets and bonds denominated in emerging market currencies are also considered to be securities of emerging markets issuers. The fund may invest up to 20% in USD or other securities denominated in developed country currencies.

Investors can buy and sell shares of the fund on a daily basis. This fund may only be appropriate for long-term investment.

Dividends

The shares in this class are accumulating and no dividends are distributed.

Risk and reward profile

The fund is rated 5 due to the nature of its investments which include the risks listed below. These factors singularly or in combination may impact the value of the fund's investments or expose the fund to losses.

- Bonds risk: The market values of bonds generally vary inversely with the level of interest rates - when interest rates rise, their values will tend to decline and vice versa. Funds investing in bonds will be exposed to credit risk. Securities which have a lower credit rating are generally considered to have a higher credit risk and a greater possibility of default than more highly rated securities.

- Liquidity risk: Some securities, primarily unlisted securities and/or those traded in OTC markets, under certain circumstances may not be traded quickly enough in the market to prevent a loss.
- Operational risk: This fund may invest in markets where settlement systems are less well organised than those of developed markets. Thus settlement may be delayed and cash or securities belonging to the fund may be in jeopardy.
- Counterparty risk: Other financial institutions provide services to the fund such as safekeeping of assets or may serve as a counterparty to financial contracts such as derivatives. There is a risk the counterparty will not meet their obligations.

- Derivative instruments risk: While the fund intends to use derivative instruments in a prudent manner and primarily for hedging and/or efficient portfolio management purposes, derivative instruments may expose a fund to additional risks related to the credit risks of the counterparty and potential for increased volatility and reduced liquidity in comparison to the underlying security positions.

Charges

The charges you pay are used to pay the costs of running the fund, including the costs of marketing and distribution but excluding the management fees, which are charged outside the fund and are subject to a separate agreement. These charges reduce the potential growth of your investment. Entry and exit charges shown are the maximum that might be taken out of your money. In some cases, you might pay less and you should speak to your financial adviser or distributor about this. Exit charges are only applied when there is excessive trading or market timing.

The ongoing charges are based on expenses for the year ending December 2015. This figure may vary from year to year. It excludes portfolio transaction costs which do affect returns.

For more information about charges, including potential capping of expenses, please see the 'Expenses' section in the prospectus and the latest annual or semi-annual reports, available at thecapitalgroup.com/emea.

One-off charges taken before or after you invest
