RISK AND REWARD PROFILE

The value of an investment in the fund can go up and down. When you sell your units, they may be worth less than what you paid for them. If your currency as an investor is different from the portfolio currency of the fund, changes in currency exchange rates could reduce any investment gains or increase any investment losses.

The risk/reward rating above is an estimate; it is not guaranteed. The rating is based on medium-term volatility (how sharply the fund's share price has gone up and down over a recent period, generally several years). Going forward, the fund's actual volatility could be greater or lesser, and its risk/reward rating could change. A rating of 1 does not indicate a risk free investment.

The fund's risk level reflects the following factor:

- The fund invests mainly in companies that are involved in a select group of industries.

In addition, the rating does not reflect the possible effects of unusual market conditions or large unpredictable events. These could result in greater losses or volatility than the rating may indicate. In particular, the following risks (listed in no significant order) could increase during unusual conditions:

Concentration risk To the extent that the fund invests heavily in a company, industry or country that is heavily affected by an adverse event, its share price could fall.

Liquidity risk Certain securities could become hard to value, or to sell at a desired time and price.

Management risk Portfolio management techniques that have worked well in normal market conditions could prove ineffective or detrimental during unusual conditions.
