Key Investor Information

This document provides you with key investor information about this fund. It is not marketing material. The information is required by law to help you understand the nature and the risks of investing in this fund. You are advised to read it so you can make an informed decision about whether to invest.

JSS Equity - All China, share class C USD acc

a subfund of JSS Investmentfonds (ISIN: LU1900873875)

Management company: J. Safra Sarasin Fund Management (Luxembourg) S.A.

Objectives and investment policy

- The investment objective of JSS Equity – All China (the "Sub-Fund") is to achieve long-term capital growth by investing in companies in China and other investments permitted under the investment policy.
- The Sub-Fund mainly invests either directly (min. 67% of the Sub-Funds assets) or indirectly in all forms of equity securities (such as ordinary and preference shares, depositary receipts, etc.) domiciled in People's Republic of China ("PRC"), or whose business activities are concentrated in the PRC or, in the case of holding companies, that are invested mainly in shares of companies domiciled in the PRC. These investments may be listed within the PRC (onshore) or outside of the PRC (offshore).
- The Sub-Fund will invest into Chinese A shares (onshore) that are traded via Stock Connect. Chinese A shares are renminbi-denominated shares of companies domiciled in mainland China. Provided that the requirements of Article 41 of the 2010 Law are met, the Sub-Fund may also participate in initial public offerings and invest up to 10% in shares of Chinese small cap companies.
- The Sub-Fund is actively managed without replicating any benchmark. However, the Sub-Fund is managed with reference to MSCI China All Shares NR Index (the "Benchmark").
- You may redeem or convert shares in the Sub-Fund on any business day.
- This share class of the Sub-Fund continually reinvests income.

Risk and reward profile

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
---	---	---	---	---	---	---

- The risk and reward category shown is based on historical data and can not be used as a reliable indicator of the future risk profile of the Sub-Fund.
- The Sub-Fund's classification may change over time and does not provide any guarantee.
- The lowest category is not a risk-free investment.
- This Sub-Fund was categorised in risk class 6 because, in accordance with the investment policy, the value of the investments may fluctuate considerably. Consequently, both the expected return and the potential risk of loss may be high.
- Investing in illiquid assets makes selling difficult under restricted market conditions.
- Borrowing and the use of derivative financial instruments (derivatives) can generate a leverage effect, which can lead to a corresponding increase in volatility.
- The use of derivatives can produce a leverage effect which can create a corresponding increase in the Sub-Fund's volatility.
- If an issuer of securities or a counterparty in the case of derivatives transactions defaults on payment, this has a negative effect on the valuation of the respective asset in the Sub-Fund.
- Transactions with parties in emerging economies may involve greater counterparty risk due to a particular economic or political situation.
- The Sub-Fund may invest a portion of its assets in instruments which are not traded on a stock exchange or similar market. It may prove difficult to find a quick buyer for these instruments, resulting in an increase in the risk of the suspension of share redemption.
- Investments via Shanghai or Shenzhen Stock Connect are subject to additional risks, including amongst others, non-protection by Investor compensation Fund, quota limitations, regulatory risk, custody risk, clearing/settlement risk and counterparty risk.
- The collective investment scheme invests in equities and may therefore be subject to significant volatility.
- Sustainability risk is an environmental, social or governance event or condition that, if it occurs, could cause an actual or a potential material negative impact on the value of the investments made by the Sub-Fund.
- Further information on the risks can be found in the "Investment principles" section of the prospectus and in the annex to the relevant Sub-Fund.
