AMUNDI ALTERNATIVE FUNDS IV PLC

Background to the Company

Amundi Alternative Funds IV plc (the “Company”) is an investment company with variable capital constituted as an umbrella fund with segregated liability between Sub-Funds. The Company was incorporated on 7 December 2010 under the laws of Ireland pursuant to the Companies Act 2014 and is authorised by the Central Bank of Ireland (“Central Bank”) as an Undertaking for Collective Investment in Transferable Securities (“UCITS”) pursuant to the European Communities (Undertakings for Collective Investment in Transferable Securities) Regulations 2011 (as amended) (the “UCITS Regulations”) and the Central Bank (Supervision and Enforcement) Act 2013 (Section 48(1)) (Undertakings for Collective Investment in Transferable Securities) Regulations 2019 (the “Central Bank UCITS Regulations”).

As at 30 June 2024, the Company had one active Sub-Fund, the Amundi Metori Epsilon Global Trends Fund (launched on 13 April 2011) (the “Sub-Fund”).

Investment Objectives

Amundi Metori Epsilon Global Trends Fund

The investment objective of the Sub-Fund is to achieve capital appreciation over the medium to long term by implementing the Amundi Metori Epsilon Global Trends Strategy.

The Amundi Metori Epsilon Global Trends Strategy is a systematic trend following strategy as it seeks to identify upward and downward price trends and to capitalise on them. In order to implement the Amundi Metori Epsilon Global Trends Strategy, the Sub-Fund’s exposure to the several asset classes on the global markets will be achieved through direct investments in the following instruments: futures, options, swaps and forwards on the following asset classes: equities (such as S&P500, CAC40 or DAX equity indices), bonds (such as UK Gilts, US T-Bills and T-Notes or German Bund, Schatz and Boble), volatility and interest rates; forward currency exchange contracts, currency futures, cross currency asset swaps or currency options; structured debt securities selected by the Investment Manager, provided that such securities fall within the categorization of “transferable securities” as contemplated by the UCITS Notices; fixed income securities and money market instruments issued by government issuers which are listed, traded or dealt in on one or more of the Recognized Markets set out in Annex I of the Prospectus; and cash deposits and near cash instruments for the purpose of cash management.

The Sub-Fund may invest in structured debt securities selected by the Sub-Investment Manager, provided that such securities fall within the categorization of “transferable securities” as contemplated by the Central Bank UCITS Regulations. The Structured debt securities are expected to provide a sub-set of the Sub-Fund’s exposure to the Amundi Metori Epsilon Global Trends Strategy. Exposure to the Structured Debt Securities is expected to range between 0 and 20% of the Net Asset Value of the Sub-Fund, 20% being a maximum level of exposure.

Calculation of Net Asset Value/Valuation of Assets

The Net Asset Value of the Sub-Fund shall be calculated by the Administrator as at the Valuation Point for each Dealing Day by valuing the assets of the Sub-Fund and deducting them from the liabilities of the Sub-Fund. Where there is more than one class of Shares in the Sub-Fund, the Net Asset Value per Share of any class is calculated by the Administrator by ascertaining the Net Asset Value of the Sub-Fund as at the Valuation Point for that Sub-Fund on the relevant Dealing Day and determining the amount of the Net Asset Value which is attributable to the relevant class of Shares. The Net Asset Value per Share of the relevant class is calculated by determining that proportion of the Net Asset Value of the Sub-Fund which is attributable to the relevant class at the Valuation Point. The Valuation Point for the Sub-Fund is set out in the Supplement for the Sub-Fund. The Net Asset Value per Share is the resulting sum rounded to the nearest four decimal places.

Dealing Day

Any Business Day on which applications for subscriptions or redemptions will normally be accepted for Shares, as the Directors may from time to time determine, provided there shall be at least one Dealing Day per fortnight in the Sub-Fund.

Investment Manager's Report

From 1st January 2024 to 30th June 2024

US equities started the year with a positive performance despite a slowdown towards the end of the month, while main equity indices in Europe were range bound. German and US 10Y yields jumped from their lows only to retreat in the last week. Within FX, the Japanese Yen depreciated against the US Dollar and the Euro, while the latter depreciated against the US Dollar and the Sterling. In this context, the Amundi Metori Epsilon Global Trends Fund ("the Sub-Fund") ended January up +3.6% (I-USD Shares). Gains were recorded with equities and currencies, while fixed income made a small loss. The overall positioning was mixed, with a long Europe vs. short US in fixed income, or a long US + Europe vs. short Hong Kong in Equities. Margin-to-Equity stands at 10%. Fixed income ended in the red, down 0.5%. Long positions on European bonds (Germany and Italy) were the main negative contributor this month, while the shorts in the USA (across multiple maturities) were mixed but ultimately added to the negative contribution. Rotations this month were the closing of the long in Germany, and the opening of shorts on US 5Y and 10Y bonds (while increasing the short 2Y). The Sub-Fund is not exposed to short-term rates contracts at the moment. Equities were the main contributor this month, up 2.6%. The largest gains were recorded with the shorts in Honk Kong and the long in Japan. Longs in the US and Europe added to the gains, while the short UK was the main detractor. The portfolio's long positioning was stable, the shorts in Hong Kong were reduced, while the short UK was opened mid-month. Gross exposure to equities stands at 67% gross / 29% net long. Currencies contributed positively, ending the month up 0.9%. The short JPY and the long GBP posted gains while the longs Latam currencies retreated mid-month and ended in negative territory. Epsilon added to its short JPY vs. USD and increased the long GBP vs. EUR. Remaining positions were mostly unchanged. Epsilon's net short USD exposure was halved from 26.3% to 13.7%.

In February, equities edged higher, with a notable performance of European equities, while US indices experienced some reversals during the month. German yields on the short end of the curve jumped by 48bps (+20%). In the US, 2Y bond yield also ended higher but to a lesser extent (+11%). In the FX spectrum, the US dollar was caught between ups and downs against the Euro and the Sterling, while the Japanese Yen depreciated against major currencies. In this context, the Sub-Fund ended the month up 2.2% (I-USD Shares). The portfolio was stable overall, with mixed exposures across asset classes. In equities, the Sub-Fund was long Japan, the US and Europe and short Hong Kong. It was short US fixed income and long Italian bonds. Within FX, the Sub-Fund is short USD and JPY and long GBP. Margin-to-equity stands at 11%. Fixed income negatively contributed, down 0.2%. Gains were recorded on the shorts in the US (2Y, 5Y and 10Y bond contracts), the short SOFR 3M ended flat, while the long Italian bonds ended in negative territory. Apart from the opening of a short SOFR in the last week, the fixed income portfolio was stable throughout the month. Equities posted a gain of 1.1%. Long positions on Japanese, US and European equities contributed positively, while the shorts in Hong Kong ended in negative territory. The short on UK equities ended flat. The Sub-Fund added a long DAX to its existing longs in Europe (Spain, Italy, and France), while slightly reducing its long Nasdaq. Other positions were relatively stable. As a result, the Sub-Fund's net equities exposure increased from 29% to 35% (72% gross). Currencies ended the month up 0.9%. Gains were mainly recorded with the shorts JPY (vs. EUR and USD). The longs emerging currencies were mixed, with the MXN posting profits and the BRL ending slightly in negative territory. Meanwhile, the long GBP negatively contributed. The Sub-Fund opened a short AUD, which ended flat. It also increased the longs GBP (vs. EUR) and MXN, while other positions were unchanged. Epsilon's net short USD exposure decreased from 13.7% to 8.7% at month-end.

Equities were mixed during the month of March. Europe and the US were still trending up. Japan showed signs of a slowdown, with two reversals during the month. Meanwhile, Hong Kong and Chinese equities ended in negative territory. Bond yields showed different path this month, with rates moving higher in the US, while struggling for direction in Japan and Germany. Within FX, the US dollar appreciated against all its major peers. In this context, the Sub-Fund ended the month up 4.4% (I-EUR shares), bringing the YTD performance to 10.6%. The portfolio maintained its long/short positioning across asset classes. In equities, the Sub-Fund is long in Europe, the US, Japan, India and Taiwan, and short in Hong Kong and China. In fixed income, it is short in the US and long in Italy. In Currencies, short JPY and long GBP positionings were maintained, while exposure to Emerging currencies was spread between longs in LATAM currencies and a short CNH.

Margin-to-Equity rose to 13%. Fixed income ended slightly up 0.1%. The short SOFR 3M and the long BTP in Italy were the main contributors, while the shorts 2Y and US Long bonds negatively contributed. The Sub-Fund opened the short US Long bond early in the month, and simultaneously closed the shorts US 5Y and 10Y bonds. The short 2Y bond was reduced to a marginal level. Long positioning in Europe decreased with the closing of the long BTP-Short in Italy. Equities were the main performer this month, posting a gain of 2.6%. Main contributors were the longs EuroStoxx Banks, Spain and Taiwan. Short positions in Hong Kong and China and the long in India ended in the red. Remaining long positions in Europe, the US and Japan positively contributed. The Sub-Fund opened a short on mainland Chinese equities and longs in India, Taiwan, Japan (Topix), EuroStoxx Banks and Switzerland. It closed the long in Italy, increased its long in Germany and reduced the longs France, US and Japan (Nikkei). Currencies recorded a positive performance of 1.8%. The long MXN and the short CNH were the main contributors, while the short AUD and the long BRL were the main detractors. The shorts JPY and the longs GBP (both vs. EUR and USD) added to the gains. Rotations this month were the closing of the short AUD, the increase of the longs GBP and MXN and the opening of the short CNH, which turned the Sub-Fund net USD exposure from 9% short to 16% long at month-end. Other positions were relatively unchanged.

Both equity and fixed income markets struggled through April. Japanese and European equities posted negative monthly returns, albeit slightly outperforming their US counterparts. Hong Kong emerged as a notable exception, with monthly returns exceeding +9%. Fixed income generated negative performances as bond yields rose across geographies. Within FX, the Japanese Yen slid to a 34-year low against the US Dollar amidst speculation surrounding potential intervention by the BoJ. The US Dollar appreciated against its major peers. In this context, the Sub-Fund ended the month down -0.5% (I-USD shares), bringing the YTD performance to +10.0%. Equities were the main performance detractor this month, generating a loss of -2.7%. The longs US and Europe negatively contributed. The shorts Hong Kong and China added to the losses. The Sub-Fund closed its shorts H-Shares and FTSE China but maintained its longs Europe, US, Japan, India, Taiwan, and its short Hong Kong. Fixed income was the main performance driver, posting a gain of +1.5%. This positive contribution was generated by the short US across the yield curve (SOFR 3M, 2Y, 5Y, 30Y). Meanwhile, the long Italian BTP recorded a marginal loss. The Sub-Fund opened a short US 5Y and increased its other positions (except for its small short US 2Y). In a volatile environment, currencies recorded a positive performance of +0.5%. The shorts JPY against USD and EUR were the main contributors. The long GBP against EUR added to the gains. The long LATAM currencies against USD negatively contributed. The Sub-Fund opened long CAD against USD and closed its longs GBP and BRL vs. USD. The long MXN vs. USD and long GBP vs. EUR were reduced. The portfolio maintained its long/short positioning across asset classes. In equities, the Sub-Fund is long in Europe, the US, Japan, India, and Taiwan, and short in Hong Kong. In fixed income, it is short US and long Italy. In Currencies, the Sub-Fund remained short JPY, long GBP, long MXN, and short CNH. The long Brazilian Real was closed. Margin-to-Equity slightly decreased to 12%.

US equities generated gains, driven by tech stocks and a positive earnings season in May. Meanwhile, bond yields moved sideways in both Europe and the US. In Japan, the 10Y bond yield topped 1% for the first time in more than a decade. In the currency spectrum, the USD declined following a 4-month upward trend. The Euro hit its weakest level against the GBP since August 2022. In this context, the Sub-Fund ended the month up 1.5% (I-EUR shares), bringing the YTD performance to +11.0%. Margin-to-Equity slightly decreased from 12% to 11%. The portfolio maintained its core positioning. The Sub-Fund is short US fixed income, long Italian bond. In equities, the model closed its short Hong Kong and maintained its long across geographies. In Currencies, the Sub-Fund remained short JPY, long GBP, long MXN, and short CNH. Equities were the primary performance driver this month, generating a gain of +1.8%. The long Nasdaq position delivered the highest returns, with additional gains from long positions in Europe and Taiwan. Conversely, the short Hang Seng contributed negatively and was closed this month. The Sub-Fund ended the month with a stable long-only equity positioning. Fixed income was the sole performance detractor, posting a loss of -0.7%. The shorts US and long Italy recorded contained losses. The portfolio introduced two new shorts US bonds (10Y and Ultra Long Bond). The other positions remained stable. Currencies recorded a positive performance of +0,3%. The long MXN vs. USD, short JPY vs. EUR, and long GBP vs. EUR positions were the primary performance drivers. The long South African ZAR against USD which was added this month contributed negatively. The remaining positioning was stable. The Sub-Fund's net long USD exposure decreased from 62% to 48%.

Equities were mixed, with European indices ending the month of June down and the U.S. posting gains. In fixed income, 10Y bond yields across geographies struggled for direction. In currencies, the U.S. dollar went up this month against its major peers, the Euro depreciated further against the Sterling, while the Japanese Yen was still on a downward trend. In this context, the Amundi Metori Epsilon Global Trends Fund ended the month up 0.3% (I-EUR Shares). The portfolio maintained its short fixed-income and long equities. In currencies, it was short EUR, long USD, and short Emerging currencies. The Margin-to-Equity ended at 10%. Fixed income negatively performed this month, posting a loss of -1.1%. The shorts in the U.S. were the main detractors. The long in Canada and the short in Italy added to the negative contribution. The long Canada was opened and closed during the month, while other positions remained stable. Equities generated a positive contribution of 0.7%. Gains were spread across longs in APAC and the U.S., while longs in Europe ended in negative territory. The portfolio reduced its long in India, closed the long in France and opened a long in the U.K. Remaining positions were long and stable. Currencies posted a gain of 0.5%. The long GBP vs. EUR and the shorts CNH and JPY vs. USD were the main performance contributors, while the long MXN vs. USD was the sole negative contributor. The Sub-Fund turned short on the MXN and opened a short BRL, doubling its short exposure on Emerging currencies. The net long USD exposure increased from 48% to 75% this month.

Outlook

Heading into the second semester of 2024, the Amundi Metori Epsilon Global Trends Fund maintained its short positions on short-term rates and bonds. Concerning its risk exposure in equities, the Sub-Fund holds a long bias. In the currency market, the Sub-Fund continues to hold long positions in USD versus other currencies.

Notes to the Financial Statements

1. Significant Accounting Policies

The principal accounting policies and estimation techniques applied in the preparation of these financial statements are set out below. The accounting policies applied and method of computation followed in these financial statements are the same as those applied in the Company's annual financial statements, as at and for the year ended 31 December 2023.

a) Basis of Preparation

These condensed unaudited financial statements for the financial period from 1 January 2024 to 30 June 2024 have been prepared in accordance with IAS 34 'Interim Financial Reporting' and pursuant to the UCITS Regulations and the Central Bank UCITS Regulations.

These financial statements should be read in conjunction with the annual report and audited financial statements for the financial year ended 31 December 2023 which were prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS") as adopted by the European Union ("EU") and those parts of the ICAV Act 2015 applicable to entities reporting under IFRS, the UCITS Regulations and the Central Bank UCITS Regulations. The accounting policies applied and methods of computation followed in these financial statements are the same as those applied in the company's annual financial statements for the financial year ended 31 December 2023.

The preparation of these condensed financial statements requires the company to make use of estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Although these estimates are based on management's best knowledge of the amounts, events or actions, actual results ultimately may differ from those estimates.

The financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis.

2. Exchange Rates

The following exchange rates were used at 30 June 2024 and 31 December 2023 to convert investments and other assets and liabilities denominated from local to base currency:

6. Fees

Management Fee

The Company may charge a management fee which will be paid to the Manager (Amundi Asset Management (the "Manager")). The management fee, with the exception of any performance fee payable in respect of the Sub-Fund, shall accrue daily and be payable quarterly in arrears.

The management fee rates applicable to each class are as follows: Class A Shares up to 1.75% per annum, Class I Shares up to 1.00% per annum, Class AA Shares up to 1.9% per annum and Class IA Shares up to 1.25% per annum. Management fees charged during the period amounted to EUR 2,104,584 (30 June 2023: EUR 2,781,633) of which EUR 2,812,483 (31 December 2023: EUR 2,025,915) was payable at the period end.

6. Fees (continued)

Administration, Depositary and Global Administrative Fees

CACEIS Ireland Limited acts as Administrator to the Company, pursuant to the Administration Agreement dated 4 April 2011. For administration, registrar services and transfer agent services provided, the Administrator shall be entitled to receive out of the net assets of the Sub-Fund an annual fee, accrued daily and paid quarterly in arrears.

CACEIS Bank, Ireland Branch acts as Depositary to the Company, pursuant to the Custodian Agreement 4 April 2011 and updated on 6 June 2017. For services rendered the Depositary shall be entitled to receive out of the net assets of the Sub-Fund an annual fee, accrued daily and paid quarterly in arrears.

The Sub-Fund is subject to an administrative expense fee of 0.17% of the Net Asset Value of each Class of the Sub-Fund per annum, out of which will be paid the fees and expenses of the Depositary and the Administrator.

The Administrative expense fees charged for Sub-Fund for the period ended 30 June 2024 amounted to EUR 350,023 (30 June 2023: EUR 220,694). EUR 829,820 (31 December 2023: EUR 479,797) was payable at the period end.

Performance Fees

A class performance fee of up to 15% may be applied to each Share in Class A and Class I and up to 20% in Class AA and Class IA of the Sub-Fund and is payable to the Manager. The return of the Sub-Fund's Net Asset Value per Share will reflect a performance fee to be charged at the end of each incentive fee period if the Sub-Fund's Net Asset Value per Share, at the end of such incentive fee period, exceeds the High Water Mark (after deduction of all fees charged to the Sub-Fund, to the exclusion of the Sub-Fund's class performance fees).

The High Water Mark is

(i) for any Share Class issued on or after 31 December 2021, for the initial Incentive Fee Period, the initial offer price per Share of the relevant Share Class adjusted to reflect a rate of return equal to the relevant Reference Rate accrued over the relevant Incentive Fee Period and thereafter the value of the Sub-Fund's Net Asset Value per Share on the last Valuation Day of the preceding Incentive Fee Period (after deduction of all fees charged to the Sub-Fund) or the high water mark of the Share Class on the last Valuation Day of the preceding Incentive Fee Period, whichever is greater, in each case adjusted to reflect a rate of return equal to the relevant Reference Rate accrued over the relevant Incentive Fee Period.

(ii) for any Share Class already in issue on 31 December 2021, equal to the value of the Sub-Fund's Net Asset Value per Share on the last Valuation Day of the preceding Incentive Fee Period (after deduction of all fees charged to the Sub-Fund) or the high water mark of the Share Class on the last Valuation Day of the preceding Incentive Fee Period, whichever is greater, in each case adjusted to reflect a rate of return equal to the relevant Reference Rate accrued over the relevant Incentive Fee Period.

The relevant Reference Rate varies according to the local currency of the Share Class and is set out in the Supplement for the Sub-Fund.

Performance fees charged for the period ended 30 June 2024 amounted to EUR 997,819 (30 June 2023: EUR 592,095). EUR 1,152,692 was payable at the period end (31 December 2023: EUR 292,057).

GBP Class I	64,817
USD Class I	76,180
USD Class IA	10
USD Class AA	1,905
	997,819

The performance fee is paid to the Manager who in turn pays a portion of the fee to the Sub-Investment Manager.

Directors Fees

The Directors shall be entitled to a fee as remuneration for their services at a rate to be determined from time to time by the Directors provided that the amount of remuneration payable to each Director in any one (1) year in respect of the Company shall not exceed in one year €15,000 per Sub-Fund or such other amount as may be approved by a resolution of the Directors and disclosed to the Shareholders in the annual or semi-annual accounts.

For the period ended 30 June 2024 all Directors fees were paid by the Manager on behalf of the Company. This amounted to EUR 14,500 for 2024 (2023: EUR 14,500).

Only the Independent Directors were entitled to receive the fees for their services during the period.

7. Derivative Contracts

The Sub-Fund uses futures to achieve its investment objective and forward currency exchange contracts to hedge non-base currency share classes.

Forward foreign exchange contracts entered into by the Sub-Fund of the Company represent a firm commitment to buy or sell an underlying asset or currency at a specified value and point in time based upon an agreed or contracted quantity. The realised gain or loss is equal to the difference between the value of the contract at the onset and the value of the contract at settlement date and are included in the Statement of Comprehensive Income. The fair value of the forward foreign exchange contracts are included in the Statement of Financial Position.

Futures contracts held by the Sub-Fund of the Company are exchange traded derivatives which represent agreements to buy or sell a financial instrument in the future for a specified price. The future contracts are collateralised by cash held by brokers in margin accounts and changes in the value of the contracts are settled net, on a daily basis. The realised gain or loss is equal to the difference between the value of the contract at the onset and the value of the contract at settlement date and are included in the Statement of Comprehensive Income. The fair value of the future contracts are included in the Statement of Financial Position.

8. Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The Company/Sub-Fund is required to classify fair value measurements using a fair value hierarchy that reflects the significance of the inputs used in making the measurements. In accordance with IFRS 13, the inputs have been categorised into a three-level hierarchy which gives the highest priority to quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1) and the lowest priority to significant unobservable inputs (Level 3). If the inputs used to value an investment fall within different levels of the hierarchy, the categorization is based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement of the investment.

The Company/Sub-Fund uses the “market approach” valuation technique to value its investments. A financial instrument’s level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of any input that is significant to the fair value measurement. However, the determination of what constitutes “observable” may require significant judgement but can generally be considered as that market data which is readily available, regularly distributed or updated, reliable and verifiable, not proprietary, and provided by independent sources that are actively involved in the relevant market. The categorisation of a financial instrument within the hierarchy is based upon the pricing transparency of the instrument and does not necessarily correspond to the risk of that instrument.

The three levels of the fair value hierarchy are as follows:

- Level 1 fair value measurements are those derived from quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the Company/Sub-Fund has the ability to access at the measurement date;
- Level 2 fair value measurements are those derived from inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly (i.e., as a price) or indirectly (i.e., derived from prices); and
- Level 3 fair value measurements are those derived from valuation techniques that include inputs for the asset or liability that are not based on observable market data (unobservable inputs) and which are significant to the valuation.

Investments typically classified within level 1 include active listed equities, exchange traded derivatives and certain Government bonds. Investments typically classified within level 2 include investments in corporate bonds, certain Government bonds, certain listed equities and over the counter derivatives. Investment funds are also considered level 2 investments if there is evidence that redemptions occurred during the year and there were no restrictions preventing redemptions at the year end. As level 2 investments include positions that are not traded in active markets and/ or are subject to transfer restrictions, valuations may be adjusted to reflect illiquidity and/or non-transferability. Such adjustments are generally based on available market information. Investments typically classified within level 3 include certain corporate bonds, private equities and investment funds that have suspended redemptions, created side pocket classes or imposed gates. Within level 3, the use of the market approach generally consists of using comparable market transactions.

12. Efficient Portfolio Management

To the extent permitted by the investment objectives and policies of the Company and subject to the limits set down by the Central Bank of Ireland from time to time and to the provisions of the Prospectus, utilisation of financial derivative instruments and investment techniques shall be employed for efficient portfolio management purposes by all the Sub-Funds. The Sub-Funds may use these financial derivative instruments and investment techniques to hedge against changes in interest rates, non-functional currency exchange rates or securities prices or as part of their overall investment strategies.

During the period the Company entered into forward foreign exchange contracts for currency hedging purposes. The counterparty in respect of the forward foreign exchange contracts is Société Générale. Forward foreign exchange contracts outstanding at 30 June 2024 are disclosed in note 7. The counterparty in respect of the futures is Société Générale. Future contracts outstanding at 30 June 2024 are disclosed in note 7. Realised gains and losses on financial instruments used for efficient portfolio management purposes are disclosed in note 5. Excluding futures contracts, transaction costs are embedded in the cost of the investments and therefore cannot be separately disclosed.

13. Significant Events During the Period

Russia's invasion of Ukraine caused a closure of the Moscow stock exchange and then the closure of the market for Global Depositary Receipts replicating Russian assets and has had an impact on energy and other commodity costs. Although this has not had a material effect on the Sub-Fund, we have seen bouts of volatility arising as a result. We continue to monitor developments in this crisis and its impact on the management of the Sub-Fund.

There were no other significant events during the period ended 30 June 2024.

14. Soft Commissions

There were no soft commission arrangements entered into during the current period or prior period.

15. Significant Events Since the Period End

Ms. Una Barrett was appointed as Director of the company on 1 July 2024.

There have been no other significant events to report since the period end.

16. Approval of the Financial Statements

The financial statements were approved by the Board of Directors on 26 August 2024.
