OBJECTIVE

To increase the value of your investment, while seeking capital preservation.

PORTFOLIO ASSETS

The Compartment mainly invests in a broad range of corporate financial and government bonds, including securities and loans from issuers who have failed to make scheduled payments or are in, or near, bankruptcy (distressed and defaulted securities). The Compartment mainly invests in Europe, and can invest across any sector, credit quality and currency.

DERIVATIVES AND STRUCTURED PRODUCTS

The Compartment may use derivatives to reduce various risks (hedging) and for efficient portfolio management, and may use structured products to gain exposure to portfolio assets.

COMPARTMENT CURRENCY

INVESTMENT PROCESS

In actively managing the Compartment, the investment manager uses issuer and credit analysis to identify securities it believes may benefit or be hurt by potential turnaround situations and takes long positions in the former and short positions in the latter. The investment manager may invest in issuers with any environmental, social, and governance (ESG) profile. It methodically exercises voting rights and may engage with issuers in order to positively influence ESG practices.

Terms to understand

Bonds Securities that represent an obligation to repay a debt, along with interest.

Derivatives Financial instruments whose value is linked to one or more rates, indexes, share prices or other values.

Long position, short position A long position (such as ownership) benefits from a rise in a security's value, a short position benefits from a decline in value.

Structured products Securities similar to derivatives, but with defined risk or performance characteristics.

Other characteristics

Designed for investors who understand the risks of this Compartment and plan to invest for 5 year(s) or more. This is an accumulation share class, meaning any income earned is retained in the share price. It is also a hedged share class, which means that it is designed to reduce, but not cancel out, the currency risk between the Compartment currency and the Share Class currency. Orders to buy, switch or redeem shares are ordinarily processed every month.

Risk and reward profile

The Share Class is assigned to this risk category because of the price variations resulting from its currency and the nature of the Compartment's investments and strategy. The risk category shown is based on historical data and may not be a reliable indication for the future risk profile of the Share Class. It is not a target or a guarantee and may change over time. The lowest category does not mean a risk-free investment. The Compartment offers no capital guarantee or asset protection measures. The Compartment may be exposed to the following risks which are not adequately captured by the synthetic risk indicator and may negatively impact its value:

- Financial Derivatives risk: the leverage resulting from derivatives amplifies losses in certain market conditions.
- Liquidity risk: markets with low volumes result in difficulties valuing and/or trading some assets.
- Counterparty risk: losses occur when a counterparty does not honour its obligations related to contracts such as over-the-counter derivatives.
- Credit risk: sudden losses may occur when issuers of debt securities default on their payment obligations.
- Operational risk: losses resulting from human errors, system failures, incorrect valuation and safekeeping of assets.
- Investing in distressed securities The recovery of investments in distressed or defaulted debt securities is subject to uncertainty related to court orderings and corporate reorganisations among other things. Companies which issued the debt that has defaulted may also be liquidated.
- Sustainability risk: ESG related risk events or conditions could cause a material negative impact on the value of the investment if they were to occur.

Further information can be found in the prospectus.
