Robeco Emerging Conservative Equities D EUR shares (LU0582533245)

This fund is a subfund of Robeco Capital Growth Funds, SICAV

Management Company: Robeco Luxembourg S.A.

Objectives and investment policy

Robeco Emerging Conservative Equities invests in relatively low-risk stocks in emerging markets across the world. The fund's long-term aim is to achieve returns comparable to those on emerging-markets stocks, but at a distinctly lower level of risk. The selection of these low-risk stocks is carried out using a quantitative model, which ranks stocks in a variety of ways, including market sensitivity, volatility, valuation and sentiment.

Currency risk will not be hedged. Exchange-rate fluctuations will therefore directly affect the fund's share price.

The fund is not restricted by a benchmark, but instead uses a quantitative model that maximizes the return per unit of absolute risk. This share class of the fund does not distribute dividend.

You can purchase or sell units in the fund on any valuation day. This fund may not be appropriate for investors who plan to withdraw their money within 7 years.

Risk and reward profile

Historical data, such as is used in calculating the synthetic indicator, is not a reliable indication of the future risk profile. The risk and reward category shown is not guaranteed to remain unchanged, the categorisation may shift over time. The lowest category does not mean a risk-free investment.

Equities in general are more volatile than bonds. Emerging Markets are one of the most volatility investments as its growth potential is very high but they are usually operating in less stable and developed political and economic environments. These facts make for large movements in the development of prices thus increased volatility.

The following risks are deemed material for this fund, and are not (adequately) reflected by the indicator:

1. The product invests in instruments which are by their nature sufficiently liquid, yet which may under certain circumstances have a low level of liquidity impacting the liquidity of the product.

For a complete overview of all risks attached to this fund we refer to section Risk considerations within the prospectus.
